Weednesday May 6th.

Landed on the dock "Coburg" "Cunard", directly from the "Benguela", about 10.30 A.M. Mr Robertson, of Alexander & Chantier, was on hand, and took charge of every thing. And the Customs Officers came on board, & rapidly and kindly made their examinations. No trouble. Paid my fees to the stewards, - to Albert Evans the 2nd-room steward, to Mrs Forder the stewardess, - & to the butcher for care of the 3 dogs & the remaining 18 parrots.

Y Liverpool (May 1891)

We were through with the Customs, quite as soon as were the Calabar company, Rev & Mrs Beecie, & Mrs Ludwig & Mr Bishop. They preceded us in one cab and cart, & we followed in another cab & cart. Left 23 articles, big & little, in transit, till on the steamer, to be placed in Customs House, till I should start for America.

Drove to A. & C., and waited a few minutes while Mr Robertson attended to the Calabar Co. Then, Mrs R. drove on with us to Lawson Hotel, Clayton Square, where our baggage already was arrived. The amazement of Amyauntyne and the children at the heavy horses, and the loads of goods, & a load of ice!

Settled at Lawsons. After dinner, I went out, and did some errands.

I forget the order of events. It was the afternoon of either the 6th or 7th that I called on Messrs Holts' office, in Preston's Row; &, after some hesitation, asked Capt Jonathan to help me by asking Mrs Holt to receive Augustyn as servant, in their family, after I left. He smilingly refused "for a servant", but intimated he would arrange otherwise. And Mr John Holt invited us all to come to his house, for tea on Friday afternoon the 8th. Had many anxieties and plans for Augustyn; as I could not decide my own journey till she was settled for. To return to Africa, in 2 weeks per "Benguela", was very good & safe; but, on going to Augustyn's first dentist Osborne's, on, I think, the morning of Thursday 7th, the dentist (1 Rodney st) said he could not do the work in only 2 weeks. Was to decide by Saturday, whether she should delay till the African steamer of June.

4 Liverpool (May 1891)

Had errands at Philips, for maps and books; to Keen & Rodsham, for repairing field-glass & eye-glass; to shoe maker. At the 8
On Friday afternoon, went all of us to Holts office, at 4. P. M., where we were met by Capt & Mrs Davis, & we all went, under the Mersey river by the Tunnel, to the great wonder of my company. Mr John Holt then sent us in cabs, to his home. A delightful hour. Mrs John Holt & their 8 children; daughter "Connie" & the little children. Fun in the evening, with attempts at African plays and songs by Mary and Iza. Capt Davis brought us back at night. And, we were engaged, by Capt Jonathan Holt, for Saturday afternoon. I think it was Saturday A. M. the 9th, when we all went to Lewis's Department Store, and made number of purchases: and went on to the dentists, and made appointment

Jn Augustyn's teeth, Jn Monday afternoon. I think it was Friday A.M. the 8th I rode with Mr Robertson, to Coburg Docks, to verify my 23 boxes &c at the Custom House; & found all right: and also called at Spence & Richardson, in Water st, of American Line, & engaged passage on "British Princess", Jn 1. P.M. of Wednesday the 2d May 13th. On Friday Saturday afternoon, without Mrs Reed, all went to Holt's, Preston's Row, again; & again went through the Tunnel, to Capt Jonathan Holt's: quite different from Mr John Holt's, — very quiet, & the 4 children not so playful. But, after supper, some games were played. I felt cold all the time; Jn, I had changed from my thick common cassimere clothing to my best broadcloth; & I felt cold in the walk about the grounds and Capt. H's hot-house. Felt relieved, but somewhat humiliated, at seeming to have acted a farce, by Capt. Holt's sudden & indefinite manner of arguing about Augustyn's plans, & I was not sure what he really intended doing. Reached the Hotel late, & the night was rainy. On Sabbath the 10th was quite bilious, & did not go out all day. A military parade was going to church. On Monday A.M. 11th was not well, but went to A. & Co., for final directions;- to some shops: and to Holt's, to leave them onai pods. And Capt H. definitely stated his readiness to receive and care for Augustyna. In the afternoon, we were all to have gone to tea to Capt Davis. But I excused myself as I was too sick (an epidemic of la grippe), yet I had, at the same hour of afternoon, to go with Augustyn, to have her 7 teeth extracted.

Liverpool (May 1891)

they were easily and quickly taken out under chloroform. And, on return, to the Hotel, Capt Davis kindly was awaiting me, kindly sick, & he did not care to take the children & Mrs Read (who was frightened & disappointed) without me: & the visit to his home was given up. He had never been so open & kind to me: said he would have taken Augustyn if Hall's had not. Heard nothing from Mr J. W. Drake, whom I had informed by note of our presence in Liverpool. Had to go out, later in afternoon, to the dentist's, to ask advice about the continued hemorrhage from one of Augustyn's teeth. Last packages and bundles coming in. All our washed clothes came in. Preparing for packing.

On Tuesday May 12th. My clothing came in from the tailor. Think it was

8/ Liverpool (May 1891)

This morning I suddenly found that Mary had not enough warm good clothes, fit for the Atlantic voyage; & I went out with her to Lewis's, and got her one more dress. My trunks and Mary's were slowly but faithfully packed by Augenbyera, at intervals, as she was able, sitting on the floor, and having the articles to be packed handed her. She was suffering from a cold, - her gums were tender, she was weak from yesterday's bleeding, and I think a depression from the strength & bravery with which she had taken the chloroform. By night, most of the trunks were ready. We laid on the floor, weak, and coughing, and miserable with the thought of parting. But Mary & Iya did not think of the future: they had a vociferous romp & tumble about, before they went to bed.

On Wed'y May 13th, the steward and porters of the Hotel came, after breakfast, to strap up and carry down stairs our baggage. Paid fees! The 3 dogs and 18 parcels were all well. Mr Robertson had said the cart would come for our boxes at 10. A. M., & Mr Alexander would come in a cab for ourselves at 11. A. M. But, as nothing had come at 11. A. M., I became anxious, and sent word, by the chambermaid Agnes, for a cart to be called; but, just at the moment, A. & C.'s young clerk came with the cart, & took our 14 trunks, cages, & bundles, & with word for us to wait Mr Alexander, who hurriedly came a few minutes later, & put us in a cab, he riding outside. I was very weak, with the influenza, and could not hold up my head. Augusta was, bundled up on the mantle, accompanied to see us off. Long ride to the Langdon Branch Dock, where lay the "British Princes". Could scarcely walk on board. Many emigrants going on board, in the steerage. Sat in the saloon a little while, and then went to my room, & Mrs Reed shown to hers, & our room-baggage was brought us. And Augustyn & the children sat with me, & the children were sad, & all of us quiet. And soon, Mrs Alexander left, after having seen my baggage was on board. And I lay in my berth, and Mary lay on the sofa in my room, crying bitterly for Igla and her nurse. By 2. P.M. we were off, and Mary cried more. Tried to comfort her. She came to the lower berth with me, and asked to be allowed to remain in my room, and not go to Mrs Reed's: but, she would not eat any thing. The Redroom steward George was attentive, - and the Doctor came. And Mrs Reed and the nurse put Mary to bed, & I took the upper berth. By 11 A.M. of Thursday May 14th, steamer stopped at Queenstown. The Capt. had come in to see me: and the stewardess: and a Mrs Hickman & her baby; and all were sympathetic; and Mary dressed, and I let her go to the care of an American fellow-passenger Miss Brown. But the Doctor kept me in bed with "la Grippe" till Tuesday May 19th. All the intervening days, I remained in bed, the steward very attentive to me, - & the stewardess, & Miss Brown kind to Mary. Also, the Doctor & three gentlemen played with her.

On Tuesday the 19th, I was allowed to dress, and come on deck, and sit in the sun. And, at supper, I introduced myself to Miss Browne, & thanked her for helping Mary. Found, from the Capt. & Hogg one of the "Benguela" passengers, Mr. Hague (?), had met him, in a Liverpool restaurant, & had told him I would be a passenger on the "British Prince", & had commended me to him. Also, found that the 4th mate, Mr Tatham, had, in 1883 – 1887 been on Hatton & Cookson's steamer, "Bonny", running to Calabar, & he knew some of our mutual trader friends. Also, Miss Brown astonished me by telling me she knew Mrs Williams wife. The weather grew cold, and on Wed'y 20th, I remained in bed. But, rose again, in afternoon of Thursday 21st. Read the copies Jan'y, – Feb'y, – March, – April, – & May of "Scribner", which I had bought in Liverpool. Finished the sad story of "Jerry". On Friday 22nd felt better than on any previous day, & began to enter this Diary. Passed a large German steamer. The Captain gave me, for reference and remembrance, a chart of our course, day by day, across the ocean since Jan, and estimated positions for Saturday and Sabbath, assuming that we would ascend the Delaware on Monday, just the day on which I have been counting, since leaving Liverpool.

The 22°, 23°, and 24°, I stood upon deck; but, even then was still cold, & I did not go on deck. Spent most of Sabbath 24° in my room. The water of the Gulf stream had been about 79°; but, after we crossed it, the air was colder, & thermometer 20° degrees lower. On Sabbath night, before Mary went to bed, the Captain burned signal lights, on a fishing (pirogue) canoe coming out) in order to please them.

By 1. A.M., of Monday 25th, the pilot had been taken on board, & we had entered Castries Bay, & passed the Breakwater, before I was up on deck, at:- packing trunks, strapping bundles, & paying the stewardess & steward. By 11. A.M., the Custom-House steam cutter & Post-Doctor came alongside; &, to our surprise & delight, Bill & Charles were on board. Had bad news of brother Williams death. Mrs Bird's delight at Charles, Mrs Watts influence had smoothed & arranged everything for my sons coming. The Doctor was polite, - & Custom's officers, & boxes very helpful. Passed our luggage at once. At the dock, Mrs Bill was present, & I left him & Charles with Mrs Bird & Fanny, while I rode in cab, with Bill & boxes, to the Custom House, to get Permit to land the dogs & parrots.

there with Bill & the boxes, & rode back to dock.
Mr Bill had gone with my friend, Clarke, my

Bill came & he & I, with baggage-agent & Custom officer, hunted for, found, opened, passed, & checked our 20 transit boxes &c.
I was very tired. Then, by this time, the "British Princess" had pulled into dock, &
I went on board, & got the dogs & parrots, left all my baggage with the express man, & took my birds, dogs, & small bundles in carriage with Juan; & Will & Charley went by street cars, & we met at Broad St Station, & then got on cars for Queenstown, where Wm. H. Brown was awaiting me. Will's wife was not well, Glad welcomes: but, I was very tired, & large bundle of letters awaiting me; &

Philadelphia (Mar 1891)

I did not read any, on my 23d brother William, whose death Charles had told me of the day. It was a blow to me, for I expected to live with him, & to depend on his counsel. On Sunday 26th, stayed in the house, & read my letters; but did not answer any. Mrs Mauer came & spent the afternoon & evening, with the little baby, Mary Lizzie. Gave Mrs Mauer a parrot; & Will his 2 dogs. Plans for the gift of Home; the Keys to Fairhill, & of the Case of plants to Horticultural Hall. On Wed.y 27th, wrote letters in the morning, answering half of those that had awaited me here; but was very worn out, by afternoon. On Thursday 28th, went in to town with Will & Mary; met Charley at Broad st.; went with him to Dr Ziegler, for my eyes to be examined. Thence, to a druggists, for an eye-wash. Thence, to an of tickets, for eye-glasses to be arranged. Then, back to Broad st, where Charlie left to go on his own errands, & Will rejoined us. He had been, with a letter from Dr Pitts, to Thos Meehan in Horticultural Hall, & arranged for opening of the case of Plants on Friday. Then, Will took us into the Ladies' Office, & we had an agreeable meeting. Then, I went, by myself with Mary, to 1334 Chestnut st, to see Miss Lombard: she was not there; but, we saw Miss Fishburn, & gave to Scott — 10 tickets in hair-pins. Then, though tired, walked to Mrs Sills's, 244 South 12 st, & saw Mrs Sills. And then, very tired, walked to Wanamaker's, & bought a parrot-cage for Mary. And then to Broad st, just missing the 1.18 P.M. train for Germantown. Sat in the waiting room & rested till next train 2. P.M. And reached Queen Lane very tired. At

G. F. H. [illegible] & Will came, & I gave them the boxes of skins, & gave him Hattie his choice of them. (I think it was Wed.) Will opened the box of gifts for Mama, which he had failed to send to Africa, & Mama was delighted with her doll. And I allowed her to receive the little gingham ring from Will's wife, & a ring for Ida, & Jean Will & Charley a ring (2 Accra gold rings).

On Friday 29th Mama with Will and Mary Jane train to Broad St. & thence cars to Park, to Horticultural Hall, where we were met by assistant gardener & we opened the Wardian case of plants. The case had not been kept straight & the contents were tumbled; but, most of the plants were alive. Then we [illegible] standing & got very tired. Rode down to 3739 Walnut, the home of Robert Lowrie, & met Sister Lillie & her daughter Lillie Lowrie.

Philadelphia (7 May 1871) stayed there till lunch, & left near 4. P.M. walked to Market st, & rode down to Wanamaker's (meeting me on way a little) & then through Park & over Chestnut. Went to Broad st station, & in good time for 4.39. P.M. to Green Lane, where I arrived in time. Rec'd various letters; draft for $100. from Bond, & for $200. of my own books from Dr Gasman. Had letter from Augusta Lynn, in Liverpool 7 May 18th, heard it to Will & his wife, & Mary; and told Will & his wife part of Augusta Lynn's life, & outlined the facts of Walter Bates's hatred for her, & injustice to me about Mary.

On Sat 7 May 30th. Wrote some letters. Mrs Hansen emptied some of Mary's trunks, & arranged them in the bureau drawers. At 3. P.M., went into the city with Mary & Mrs Hansen, who was going to see her boy at Mrs Mares. Had dinner & I went, at 4. P.M. & took tea at 5, with Mr & Mrs Patten. Left them at 8. P.M. at

29 Germantown (May 1891)

Brand & Jim in time for 8.16 P.M. train, with Will & his wife, to home, & bed.

Saturday May 31. Felt that my cold was worse, & so did not go to church, Mary & I stayed. Will & his wife went, in the morning, & also at night, to their choir services; & parrot died to-day.

Monday June 1. I stayed at home & wrote letters; a very long one to Argentyne:- Mary went shopping with Wills wife: Before they came back, & by myself, I sawed in half one of the boxes, in wh. I had brought the parrots from Salem; & closing up the opened ends, fitted in new slats,- labeled the 2 boxes for Miss Mary Bottum, Pittsburg, & Miss Tillie; & Will sent them by express, when he returned, in afternoon:- Miss H. M. Johnson came to call on me, to see Mary: Was tired & hungry, in evening, & went to bed early.

Tuesday June 2: Will went into the city, immediately after breakfast. I followed, about 9. A. M.

Germantown (June 1871)

Went first to 1421 Chestnut, to Master's. He was very glad to see me & wanted me to come & stay a few days at his house; but, thanking him, I declined till I get better. He gave me a prescription, the 1st I went across the street, at Hubbell's old place, to have filled: delay. Then, to Fox's, 17th Chestnut, for my new spectacles: delay. Then, to Dr Yeigle's, missed his number. Then, on market st cars, east to 11th Phila, to the Unionist to see Rev. Jesse L. Bunting: but he was not in his office:- Then, rode back to 13th st, & got at bottle of costly whiskey, by Dr Mason's direction, as a tonic:- Then, to Broad st, for the 12.18 train to Germantown. met Will, & we came together. Will's wife & Mary had left after I had, & had not returned yet. Will & I lunched heartily on strawberries. He returned to the city: and I sawed in two the other Gabon parrot box, making 2 halves; and prepared another box, for packing some gifts for Washington, when Will's wife & co return from city. Packed it:- Two lady musicians (Miss Apsley) in evening,

Wed. June 3d. Still rainy, to take Augustyn's box to "British Queen", who, he thought, sailed at 5. P.M. He was there by the hour; but, the vessel had gone. He left the box for next week's steamer. - I opened Mary's relic-box, & took out some things, for Mary, in Willis's presence. - Got out the box of skins, & 2 Boxes of skulls of Elephant & Hippo, for Burlington Iowa & worked at repair of one of the boxes, which was badly broken. Had to stop, as I became very tired: Mary, with Mary, went into the city, to shop for a hat & dress for Mary: - I stopped work, very tired, before I was finished. Came in, rested for an hour; & then wrote letter to Sister Ella. I was seized by a sharp stitch of pain over the top of my right lung, which continued till I went to bed.

Thursday June 4. Stayed at home; the pain in the muscle over the top of lung still was present, but not as severe as yesterday; it gradually wore away. Wrote letters; & even did a little carpentering. Sent to the 2 Boxes for Burlington.

Friday June 5th. Sent off Mr Normand's parcel for Cedarburg N.Y. & Mrs Robinson's to Richfield N.Y. about 4 P.M., 1 P.M. Mrs & Dr Cosman came to see me, & lunched with us. Sent off the boy & mule to the Illinois Pa & R.R. Went with mary & Will & his wife into the city, mary & Mrs went to Wanamakers. went to Dr Pyle's; to Bd. of Trade; - to "Truth found", - to Weightman's; & back here.

Saty June 6th. The day was chilly, & I remained here writing letters, wrote quite a number, some of them important. After lunch, mary went with Will wife, to Wanamakers, & chilly rain in the evening. Was disturbed, in the evening, by mary's habit of opening to speak or make any sign when she allows her shyness to overcome her & wanted her to try to learn the keyboard of the piano, & she will do nothing.

Sabbath June 7th. Weather cold and rainy, and neither mary or I went out to church or Sunday School all day, mary did not know her lesson well in afternoon.

Germantown (June 1891)

Monday June 8th Wrote letters in the morning: Went to Harrison's parish: Mary & Mary went into the city, to see about Mary's dress being made: After lunch, went into the city: posted newspapers for Africa; saw that my subscription was closed at the "Press": called at Mr Gillis's in the Colored Home, & paid the $150, to my friend: called at 1334, to get Miss Jones' address: bought medicines at Wanamaker's: returned home, & wrote disposition of my things in Africa, in case of my death.

did not write my entry on the 9th & 10th: and forgot: Letter or no I went into the city at all:- On Thursday, a great day: went into the city, with Mary & Mary, to Wanamaker's for a combination for Mary: had my kid-gloves stretched: & left Jones's shoes, to be enlarged. Mary went with Mary, to get her new white dress for the University Commencement. Went, at 10. A. M., to the funeral of the Academy of Music & waited there. Rev. J. J. Burt came & saluted me: also

Rev. Harris, West Jersey, a Presb. clergyman 60 years of age. Also a Rev. — Slade, a Cong. Presb. clergyman, Chas. Rev. lawyer Stuart Patterson & his predecessor Dr Boyd at Lawrenceville school, minister & wife. At 11.30, went in to the Academy stage, listened to the oration, the giving of diplomas & honors, the title of Doctor of Divinity S.T.D. did not see given in the audience, but the name was, Rev. Wm. Hall, Jersey, Chas. & wife Carlisle Pa. Read at dinner table, about 2.45, to some 50 Aged Colored persons, at Friend & Pelham ave. Addresses by Rev. Bp. C. W. Whittaker, Rev. — Johnson, & 2 Colored ladies, Miss Hopper, & Miss Coppin, & remarks by myself. Great interest in room & was pleased & myself. Quite tired on arrival home.

Read many letters, opened my box of Photos &c, found the glass & two Parsons mostly entirely broken. Divided some of the photos to wife. (Had divided some of the Bonn photos on Sunday or Monday.)

Saturday 13th. Was very much ashamed at Mary's writing her sad last night. Went into the city, to have the glass replaced in the picture, & Mary's mother's box of paints

Memorandum (June 1871)

Read together again. Rec'd letter from Cascais Sagrada replied & went to Dr Hughes's for our eyes; but he was not in. Returned by 12.30 to this home.

Thursday " 18° } via: A very warm day, - like Africa.

Will & Mary came in the city & wrote a letter: & opened Miss Linnell's box, divided the edibles, - & looked over the MS. of the Benga Grammar. The 18° was damp & cold, from the rain of the night, Went with Mary into the city: to Fox's, rode in st-cars, to foot of Market st: crossed on ferry: on st-cars to 519 Linden st, Mrs Fanning's, A.H. Rev. Brown & Evans's place: Mr Brown showed me his accts of Mary's mother's money, - Returned across river to Fox's bought apples & cherries: for Mary, at Waumbeks, shoes & shafts: home by S. P. in.

Friday June 19. We were all late, in making preparations for breakfast, & for the train into the city. Did not leave the house with Mary till near 10.30 :- Cold rainy day :- At 1334 Chestnut St. H. A. Mrs Price's office was there & we chatted till near 12. o'clk, & saw Mr Black, & Mrs Hodge of Trenton. Left Mary with Mrs Jones & I went to Fox's, for my spectacles; to Lemelson for Catherine's, to Mr Allen's, to Wetherill, returned to Mrs Jones's & Mary, & to Mrs Fishburn's room, Mary type writing. We went to Wanamaker's, & got Mary gossamer waterproof & myself a valise. In the evening here. Mr & Mrs Miller & music.

Saturday June 20th } went into the city with Mary, to Sabbath " 21st } the Zoological Gardens. The keepers & the lions was much interested in my stay. I saw 2 little gorillas, the infants born for me, in Africa: Mary enjoyed the sight of all the animals in 3 hours. She was most interested in the deer, & raccoons,- feeding them. In returning, got on the wrong train, & had to change at Germantown Junction. Bathed Mary in the evening, as Mary was too weak.

Sabbath was very threatening this, but I started to church with Mary (turned back to get her water proof); but, rain began to pour before we had gone more than ½; block. A lady, in an open door-way of a pretty house, asked us to wait on the verandah till the rain passed. Soon, the gather came from church, with a little children. Then, the rain ceased, & then visited me into their parlor, and I told them our Lord. Their name was Parr. They were nice people, & their little girl, Florence, treated Mary nicely. It was too late to go to church: Miss Parr pinned a rubber boots on Mary, & we returned home to lunch. Stayed in doors all the afternoon; he walked with Mary in the evening.

Monday June 22d. Mary went into the city to get her Pass, at 10. A.M., I took back the rubber boots with Mary, & left her to play with went with Charley, & saw the plants were growing, & enjoyed the view of the palms & other tropical plants. Lunched at a restaurant, near Horticultural, - went to Dr Morton's, & engaged to visit him. Went & got the repaired

(by water-color paints). Bought Mary an ostrich-cap. Waited in Lill's office, at Broad st.; at 5.44, rode on cars to Stratford station, to Mr Morton's home "Clonmel". A storm of rain in the evening; was kept busy talking on Africa.

On the 4th, helped little Isabella Morton, 5 years old, on with her overshoes, and from "Goldie," a big dog "Captain."
Mr Arthur Morton took my photo; & 2 times Ricklicks played ball with them. At 3. P.M., left, & at Dunlop Avenue, changed to Germantown where Mary met me. And, after supper, Charley & Mary & I went to Wissahickon Heights, & saw Mr Watts's pictures; also, the exhibition at Wissahickon Hotel; very fine. Episode of the refusal of ginger-ale. Home late, & many sleepy & tired. On Sabbath, breakfast was very late, at 2 Woods's the first time. Heard at Woodland ch.
was Dr Crowell, grandson of W. Philadelphia, who preached, & in the afternoon, Mr Frank Erwin came to see Lill. & Charley came to see me. Had a headache

On the 6th, was busy all day, flattening together Mary's and my things, & packing her 2 trunks and my 2. Also 2 valises, - guitar, - & 3 other packages. Charles came with bill, to tea in the evening, & closed Mary's dep't, "Bengueta," in a basket, with a cloth over. The female physician of Will's wife came to see her in the evening. And, about 9.30 P.M., we left for Broad St, Will going for some medicine (Charley had already gone into the city). Will left us, after he had got his medicine, & then Charles came. Went on the Pullman sleeper: incident of Mary's flight in the water closet of the station. Was pained, in a talk with Charley, about cards & theatre. Did not sleep well, - too much air in the car. At Tyrone at about 7.30 P.M. (Phila 7th) A.M. the dog had by mistake been carried on to Altoona. A telegram was sent to Altoona, for it to be returned. Mary was troubled. On the Mauch Chunk train, Mrs Stewart, of Coleraine, recognized us. Met by nephews Charley Walter, & Matthew; 2 young ladies, Misses Edwards & LaPorte; visiting Tillie Louise. Walter chilly & thawy.

after writing some letters, played tennis with Charley, beaming from him: succeeded pretty well, & felt so well, that I exercised myself, with some gymnastics, on the lower limb of a pear-tree. Some lads & lasses, from Ilfracombe, at the tennis ground. At night, had plays with the young people, in the parlor. Went to bed late. After I got in bed, happened to observe a tumor, rather, in my groin, & suspected as an inguinal hernia on left side. It was easily reduced: & I lay awake a long while with anxiety. On Sabbath 12th, I did not observe the hernia; & after breakfast, had a comfortable fecal passage. But, while bathing, afterward, observed it. Prayed, & went to look for Charles, to help me. There was no church service at either Presb. or Methodist Ch. After 2 hours, I found Charley: there was a slight pain & he decided that it was a hernia, & reduced it with a little pain, & put on a bandage. I was very much distressed, & cast down. Then was afternoon Sab. Sch., to which Mary went. I went later to church, with Sister Tillie, but did not comply with Superintendent of M. Hab. Sch., Dr Peterson's request for remarks. etc., for church, Rev. Mr Henry's request to me to sit in the pulpit & make a prayer & "put the bandage on all right" & arrange to go to Hilad:, for the best kind of trees to be bought & fitted to me. Monday 13th, Left, on the 11.10 A. M. train from Harrisburg, Sh. was an hour late, & missed the 1st section of the day express from Tyrone, took 2d section, a Pullman train, & enjoyed the ride, the looking at the scenery, but felt no anxiety about my rupture. Ate a lunch, on the cars, Mr Sister Tillie sent with us. At Philada, lunched at a restaurant. Went to Charley's (Mrs. Patten's) & slept. with Charles examined the rupture, & tried to encourage me. Then, to Keeley's, for an rubber truss. The repeated examinations & reductions made the rupture painful, & the truss pressed hard. I was very much cast down. Went to Dr Norton's & left him 3 silver hair-pins. Went to restaurant. Went to Will's office. Wrote letter to sister Tillie & Mary, & had sent telegram. Went back to Charley's. On Wednesday 15th again to restaurant. To Keeley's. Felt a little better. But, Charley had headache. To Dr Norton's, & found him in, & had a long confidential talk with him. Went to Will's office, after lunch at restaurant. Then to Mr. Latta's room, & had a pleasant talk with him. Sat with Will awhile. — Mr Latta gave us a pass. Back to Lyons. Went to call on Miss Lombard, at her office 1334 Chestnut St, but she was not in. Back to Mr. Patton's, where Charley had a very bad headache. Both of us sat uncomfortably till 10.6 p.m. Then, went down to Broad St, & ate lunch, & went to bed in Pullman car, & left tolerably well.

42 Tyrone (July 1891) Warriorsmark

Tuesday 16th, the train was late at Tyrone, & there is no lunch-room near the station: stayed hungry till we reached Warriorsmark, when the 3 nephews met us at the little station, & from the dog "Benguela" & little Tillie & Mary came to meet me: all very glad. Brother Joseph there, at the house. Several letters awaiting me. (In Philad. had had one from the Bank, about the box of African curios in the N.Y. Custom House.) In afternoon, came visitors, Mr. Wm Lewis & wife & child, & the brother-in-law, Finney, a young student for ministry. In evening, came visitors, Mrs Meier, - Miss Davis, Miss Heiner (?), & Miss Thompson from Birmingham. A mud-fight, in the evening, in the parlor.

letter from Dr. Pepper about the missionaries from Africa: he has written to Washington about them. Mrs. Ely, the Methodist minister, in the evening, engaged me to preach for him next Sabbath week.

On Sabbath, Charles & Walter Lewis went to Birmingham Ch.: I was not able to talk about missions, as the home-pastor, as common, asked me to do. At dinner, word that Rev. Mr. Henry & wife had held his Communion here Sabbath week, & in the afternoon service, I went to Mrs Ely's & had tea: fast home my engagement for one week. Did not feel well.

On Monday, Mrs Leith with slight attack of chill & headache. Came a letter from Dr. Williams, with news of his wife's illness, & forwarding letters from Hangchow, of dates June 22d & 24th and July 5th. Very touching reference to brother William's death. Mrs Stewart of Tyrone-Forges & her 2 daughters came visiting, but I could not see them. Mrs Col. Lee & Miss Sophie & Edwards gone, & have they left in the evening.

Tuesday July 21st. Still weak, from the operation & medicine. Wrote letter. Re-read Angeline's letter. In afternoon, was alarmed to see the hernia was down, although I had the truss on: was not certain whether it was down when I applied the truss in the morning: felt quite depressed about the uncertainty of the treatment. In evening, Rev. Chas Henry & his father-in-law, Mr Walter Carter of New York, came to tea & for evening Weekly Prayer-meeting. Band-practice in the evening.

Wednesday 22d. Wrote letter. In afternoon, Dr. Wm & Mrs Lizzie & their little Mary, came to see us: a, just before tea, came 3 young men of Mercersburg, students of Penna Agricultural College, named Chatterton. In the evening, played "Word-Taking" with brother Joseph, Hettie Tillie, & Hattie & Lizzie Lamie.

On Friday morning, brother Joseph left for Warren; & son Charley, with Walter & Nathan Lamie, went to Altoona, to see tennis tournament,

Roanirenmark (July 1891)

& Mrs Sallie Lonie & Mary went to Tyrone, to shop, & visit Dr. William Lonie. I had a long talk with Miss Tillie & Mrs my troubles. Mary & Mrs & Lonie returned, in the afternoon, visit Dr W. Lonie.

On Saty, there was a Grangers Pic-nic, near the premises, & I heard their music all day, especially in afternoon. Son Charley returned, in afternoon. (On Friday evening, had a telegram, from Mrs. Latta, saying Will's wife was slightly better). Preparatory service in the evening.

On Sabbath, communion in our Presbyterian church. A cold chilly day. One lad, John Hoy Potter, was rec'd to the Table: the exercises were very helpful & tender to me. Charley not well, with his bowels.

Monday July 27th. Finished a long letter to Dr. H. M. Wetherill, of Phila., about affairs in Ireland: In the afternoon, Rev. & Mrs Robert Lonie came, on a visit & so, in the evening, Rev & Mrs Ely, the Methodist minister, called to see me.

Tuesday 28th. Was a rainy day all day. Wrote a long letter to Augusta, & sent her Rev Mr Rumpig's letter to me; also, photos of myself & of Emily. In the evening, conducted the weekly Prayer Meeting.

"Carmichael" (July 1891)

Wednesday July 29th. Cloudy morning, but soon cleared off, after Misses Edwards & Laporte had arrived from Tyrone, for a few days' visit.

Thursday 30th. Chilly wet day: Heavy hail storm. But, in afternoon, it cleared off, & I allowed Mary to go wading in the little pond of water that had collected, on the front lawn, from last night's thunder storm. In the evening, called, with Sister Tillie, on Rev. & Mrs Ely.

Friday July 31st
Sat. Aug 1st
Sabbath " 2nd Monday " 3rd

On Saty Aug. 1st, rose with chill, nausea, & headache, which slowly disappeared by noon, under the use of fasting & medicine. At 2 P.M., went to the school-house, to address the ladies of Miss Sallie Lowrie's W. F. M. S. On Sabbath, preached on missions, in the morning, to Mr Ely's church: a good audience present: felt tired after the service, but gratified that the audience seemed pleased. In the evening, felt disturbed, by the bringing forward, in a religious conversation, troublesome doubts & on God's sovereignty, in connection with the subject of the doom of the heathen: The thoughts kept me awake, long after I went to bed. Monday was cool, but clear, Wrote letters to Sawyer Aitken, & Rev Mr Swan, & cousin H. Hamill. Son Charley gave me a receipt, for Rs 4000. which I gave him, a (his mother's money) few weeks ago. In the evening, played "Logomachy," & surprised myself by easily beating the other five who were playing with me.

Tuesday Aug. 4: Was a chilly rainy day. We spent most of the day in doors. The August No. of the "Century" Magazine came, in the morning, & we all sat in the parlor, while I read aloud the serial story by Frank Stockton, "The Squirrel Inn": Wrote, in the afternoon, some additions to the "Story of Augustijn": & wrote a letter to her in Africa; & sent 2 coloured advertisement cards to her, for Mary. A pleasant service meeting in the evening.

Wedy Aug. 5: Early before breakfast, the 2 Charleys, Son + nephew rode to

Tyrone (August 1891) Birmingham

Tyrone, to take cars to Bellefonte, en route to Oak-Hall, Uncle Robert, Hannah's home. After an early dinner, Miss Hallie Lamb & niece Tillie went to Tyrone, by rail, to go shopping in Hollidaysburg, & we went along with them, as far as Tyrone, Sister Tillie, & Lee & Doris, Walter & Winthrop, and Mary & myself. Went to a barber's & a dry store, while the 2 young men went to a photographers: & then, we went to Dr. Lemmie's, for a 2 hours call. On returning to the station, the train had just left, but the station master recalled it, & we hastened to it, - great accommodation! Felt headache all day; but, feeling need of exercise, tried tennis, for the first time since my surgical, 3 week ago. Went to bed early.

Thursday Aug 16. Wrote some in the morning; allowed Mary to run bare-footed out doors to play. When she came in, she made difficulty about putting on her shoes, and I was displeased with her, & would not take her riding to Birmingham, in the afternoon. Rode with Walter Lamb, & visited Rev & Mrs Henry, & his father-in-law, Mr & Mrs Walter Carter & Miss Carter, of New York. In returning to Warrinsmark, the burrs on the bolts, holding the shafts to the axyle were lost, & we had to tie the bolt with strings. In the evening, 2 the young men Scatterers came to play tennis.

Warrinsmark

Friday Aug. 7th } The 7th was May's birthday, 7 years old. For Sat'y Aug 8th } presents, Mrs Lewis gave her a little book of Sabbath " 9th } Scripture-texts; Miss Hallie Lewis gave her a box of candy; Charley gave her a gold necklace: & I, a new pair of shoes. (The 2 Charleys had returned from their visit to Rev. Dr R. Hamill, at Oak Hall.) In the evening, I played tennis a little while, for exercise.

On Sat'y, had severe headache & nausea all day. Charley prescribed for me, & I vomited, and took quinine, & in the evening felt well, but weak.

On Sabbath, weak, but able better. A beautiful day, & I preached for Rev Mr Henry, in the afternoon.

Monday Aug. 10th. Wrote letters; The day my warm, the warmest I have felt since my coming here.

The young men went swimming, in the afternoon. Took calomel, which purged me very freely.

Ivanhoe Ranch (August 1891)

Tuesday Aug. 11th. Wrote letter to Wäermanns, at Gaboon, making inquiry about cost of a house, to be built in Gaboon. Mr George Lyon and his brother Mr. Stewart Lyon came to spend the day. A very warm day. Heavy clouds & a fall of temperature in the afternoon. Took exercise at tennis, in evening. Conducted the Weekly Prayer Meeting. No nausea to-day. Am taking 10 grains of quinine every night.

Wednesday Aug 12th. The little exercise I had taken last evening had so tired me (so weak had my muscles become for lack of exercise) that I was stiff and sleepy all day. A warm day; but, it cooled in the evening. Took many a walk, in the afternoon, to the brook that runs under the railroad. Zygomachy in the evening.

Thursday Aug. 13. Wrote, and played tennis, in the morning. In afternoon, rode with Sister Tillie & Mary to Mrs Patton's, - took tea. Mary played beautifully with the 3 little Patton girls: the 3 colts, the Guinea fowls, - the hook, - milking the cows. A pleasant day: I was quite impressed with respect for the Patton family.

Warriorsmark (August 1891)

Friday Aug. 14th. Did not feel well all day. Wrote very little: but looked over the contents of Mary's relic-trunk, for moths, & rolled each article in naphtha balls. Mrs Birkett, the furniture man, came & repaired my tin-lined chest & 2 trunks. Called again in the evening. Rev Mr & Mrs Ely & their niece came to see us. Also 2 Misses Fry. Played Organ many Saturday Aug. 15th. Rose with a headache; but, it disappeared after breakfast, & rode with Mrs Lewis and Sallie for Birmingham. Met Dr. Lewis & wife out, and returned for business with him. After dinner, started again for Birmingham with addition of Mary: Called at Rev Mr. Henry's, Mrs Thompson's, Mrs Price's, and Mrs Haines's. A delightful ride. Mr Henry, also Mrs Patten, called in the evening, & Mrs P's little girl to play with Mary. Went to bed early, so as to be well for preaching at Birmingham to-morrow.

Sabbath Aug. 16th. A beautiful day. Was faint with hunger when I arose; but, no head-ache. Nephew Charley drove me, in the new buggy, to Birmingham church, where

Birmingham (August 1891) Coleraine

I preached for Mr Henry. After church, met Mrs. Holmes, Miss Holmes, Mr Walter Carter, - Miss Davis, Miss Thompson, young Mrs North (son of Mary Latta's friend, Miss Peacehead North.). A beautiful day and ride. At Sab. Sch., gave the children a little talk on Busy Ants. Sat with Mrs Henry in the pulpit.

Monday Aug. 17th } On Monday, rec'd a letter from Argentyne Tuesday " 18th } at Liverpool, telling Ch. her box was rec'd & that she was not to return to Africa till Sept 2d. I wrote to her immediately. On Tuesday, afternoon, took Mary to wade in a stream flowing through the meadows. In the evening Charley son left, to join Mr & Mrs Patten in the Adirondacks.

Wed'y Aug. 19th. Wrote in the morning. In afternoon, rode with Sister Tillie, Mary, & Charley Lamie & Walter, to Coleraine Forges, to visit Miss Kate Stewart. Met her half-way, coming to visit us, with Mrs Rev. H. Stewart, whom I had met at Greencastle Pa., 10 years ago, at a W. F. M. S. meeting of Carlisle Dist. Mrs S. and her charming little 6-year-old Mary had always remained ing, and had prayer for Mary. A tender sympathetic visit. The ride was beautiful along the coast. This a pleasant day. (In the morning, had had a tender and good talk, from Peter Tittle, about Mary; not liking Peter Bell.). Played tennis, in evening & Logomachy at night.

Thursday Aug. 20th. Received 2 letters, in the morning, and 3, in the afternoon. Wrote a long letter to Rev. B. P. Johnson, of Woodstown, N. J. Mrs Holmes and her son, of Birmingham, called to see Miss Louie. I pain for Charley.

Friday Aug 21st. An exceedingly variable rainy day. Charley & Louie went to Tyrone, & cashed the check for £15. which Mrs Henry had given me, for 2 Sabbath services. In the afternoon, came Mrs Louie, and a Mrs Rev Crotty & her 8-year old-daughter Sara. Mary was delighted with the coming of the child.

Saturday Aug. 22nd } Wrote 8 letters on Saturday.
Sabbath " 23rd } In the afternoon, Mary fell against a door heavily, and raised quite a lump on her forehead. In the evening, went into the fields in grounds of the Patriotic Sons of America; and, with Irma and Sara Conner, had them play croquet. Met Rev. Mr. & Mrs Ely, and Dr Peterson and others. Had a headache on Sabbath, which was a rainy day: but, it cleared for the afternoon service.

Monday Aug. 24th. A chilly rainy day, cleared off cool, in the afternoon. Practised my cornet, in the afternoon; had felt dull with remains of headache, in the morning. In the evening, called, with sister Tillie, at Dr Peterson's and Mr. Ryder's. Chatting with Mrs Conner, in the evening, about missions.

Tuesday Aug 25th } In the afternoon, Miss Kate Stewart
Wed'y " 26th } of Coleraine, Mrs Rev'd H. Stewart & her little Mary, and a Mrs Adams & her little daughter, came to see us: Also, Dr & Mrs Wm Jamie of Tyrone and their little Mary. Then 3 children had a & play with my Irma & Sara Conner. Gave Miss Stewart & Mrs Stewart, each, 5 ivory hair pins. They all stayed for supper. On Wed'y, in the afternoon, Mrs Ely & her niece came to call on Mrs

Florence; and, after supper, while I was playing tennis with the 3 young men, my nephews, Mrs Fay and a lady visitor from Arcola came to see the play, & Mrs Fay took part. In the evening, we all played, in the parlor, "monkey-in-the-middle"; Had an excellent letter from Augusta, on Tuesday, which I allowed Mrs Stewart & Mrs Skinner to read.

Thursday, Aug. 27th. A clear but variable day, rather warm in the morning. Sent my old travelling-bag to the Shoemakers, Mowbray, to be repaired. Went, after dinner, to the railway station, to arrange about my baggage to be sent to Philad.a. In evening, went with Sister Tillie & the 2 girls, to call on Mrs Haggerty, Mary's joy at the prospect of going there tomorrow, to play in the brook.

Friday Aug. 28th. The morning was clear but cool; I yielded to Mary's wish, to take her to bathe in the brook, near Mrs Haggerty's. She enjoyed it so much, that I reluctantly allowed her to play in the water with Sara Crouse & the 3 Haggerty children, a wide hour. When I called her to come home, she was so thoroughly chilled that I had her run all the way. When she was bathed dry & dressed she looked pale & weak, ate no dinner, & after dinner slept for almost 3 hours. Rev. Mr. & Henry & their little Elsie, & Dr. Wm & Mrs Annie & their little Mary, came to see us. Mrs Mary was not awake & dressed, till supper time. The company left at 6.30 P. M.: & just then, Dr. & Mrs Peterson & their little Calvin came to see us. They left in an hour, after the boys had enjoyed soap-bubbles with Mary & Sara Crouse.

Saturday Aug. 29° } On the 29°, in afternoon, called good-

& their sallie Annie, with Sara C. & Mary, went to church at Birmingham: Morning very cold: singing, in evening, with Rev. Mr Crouse, who sings finely. Three trunks were checked to Phila to-day. On the Wed, to early breakfast, started at 7.00, A.M., to Wall Eagle Station: there, by 8 A.M: wait 20 minutes. Made mistake in buying tickets: checked luggage, to the train, to Watertown: changed cars at Rathbone: 20 minutes, at Williamsport to eat, but did not eat, as I had a headache. Left cars, at 1.14 P.M, at Watertown, to wait 5 hours. went to hotel, got dinner: rested & read papers. Cars again, at 6.30 P.M, to Granville, reached there at 9.15 P.M. Was met by my cousin, Rev Dr Davis & his son, Morton. At Mrs Brown, teacher at Blair Academy, N.J. was visiting there, for the night. Welcomed by Mrs Davis, & cousin Addie, Lizzie, & Bessie.

Tuesday Sept 1st } Miss Brown & Addie left: strolled in Wed " 2d } the village with Dr Davis: in eve, walked with him on the hill, a talk with him on worldly amusement. Gentlemen called, in evening, to see me. Mr Eddy, Rev & Mrs J. M. Hills came from Bloomsburg, by invitation, to dinner: on the afternoon, we all went a mile walk to the Sus-

Bridge & Fishing Creek, & boated with Mr. & Mrs. Davis, & a Mr. Seminary Classmate Mr. Foster, & Mary, & the ladies., & Rev. & Mrs Patterson, left on the evening train, & addressed Dr Davis Prayer Meeting.

Thursday Sept 3d Did not feel well, in the morning, & the day was somewhat cloudy & showery. An unpleasant incident, at dinner, when I dismissed Mary, for conversation, & Addie Davis followed her out, & without permission, brought her back. After dinner, went with Mrs Davis, to address her W. F. M. S. And, after its adjournment, the whole family went to an island, in the river, & I allowed Mary to bathe, & we all took supper, in camp style, & returned happy in the evening. At night, I sang "Ingleside" & "Annie Laurie", to Lizzie Davis accompaniment, & closed the night with Logomachy, 7 of us; in which I beat.

met by a young Mr. Latta, who took my check, & got me a cab, to hotel Lafayette. Changed Mary's dress, & walked to Wanamaker's & got her new shoes & myself new rubbers. Battled Mary at night, & left her sleeping, to write this entry.

Tuesday Sept 8th. Awoke late, & Mary woke later, & she was not dressed when Will knocked at the door having come from Atlantic City. After a little chat, he left for his office, & we breakfasted. Paid bills, & left, in the rain, for Broad St Station, & Will's office. His need for money. Mr Latta's office, a gentleman there admiring Mary's sweet face. Started on the 11.18. A. M. train, a little late, for Washington: Changed cars there, with an hour's delay, giving time for eating. On to Manassas, Va. on a poor road and poor country: Arrived shortly after 6. P. M.; was met by son-in Hattie Todd, & a Mr. Rowley who kindly helped me with the baggage. Mrs Todd & the son Robert were not at home.

Wed'y Sept. 9th
Thursday Sept 10th } Sat at the home, chatting and reading, and went to the Post office twice. In the evening, conducted the Ch. Prayer-meeting, and was introduced, after service, to several of the Ch. members. As we walked home, observed an Aurora Borealis, - the first for 10 years.

On Thursday, went to the ticket-office, to inquire rail-way route to Orwell's Court house. Mr Round came, and drove us in his carriage, to a Widow Donelson's, where a sale of farm stock was going on; We rode near the battle-field of Manassas, Returned to a late dinner. A Mrs F., wife of one of the Ch. elders, made a long call: & many went with Mrs Todd, to see Mrs Round's new-born Babe.

Friday Sept 11th. Wrote 3 letters & 1 postal :- A Miss Bigg, an American, of English parentage, came to visit for the day. In afternoon, we all walked through the grounds of the rich Brewer, Mr Portner, & examined the remains of some earth-works left from the rebellion. Then, on to the home of a former Union soldier, Mr Rheinbolt(?), & ate watermelon there: Mary gathered many wild flowers.

Sat. 7 Sept. 12 } Went to the barber's, about noon, & had my Sabbath " 13 } hair cut. Mrs Donelson came to stay a day with Mrs Todd :- A Mr Slack called to see me. Went to meeting of the County Sab. Sch. Association ; made a short address, & was thanked by a rising vote, - and, on request, took Mary to the platform & told of her infancy : the superannuated Meth. minister, Mr Smith, - Rev Peyton, the Baptist (?) minister. Mary attracted much attention.

Mary, with Hattie Todd & Miss Bigg, went to see Mrs Round & her babe. On Sabbath, preached for the Presb. Ch. And, in evening, preached for colored Baptists, told them the "Story of a Day at African Mission Station" :
spoke for an hour, but stopped for signs of rain : the negro shrieking & one old man & his chanted like prayer ; another prayer, " comes the time when every tribe will stand on its own bottom ".

Monday Sept 14. Had a headache, & did not do much in the morning. Went to Post Office, & rec'd letter from Rev. G. L. Campbell, In afternoon, was to have gone to tea at Mrs Rowe's ; but,
Hattie Todd walked there & countermanded it, because of Mrs Todd's landlady. Went to newspaper office & got five copies of the "Manassas Gazette", with the notice of myself. Was told that the negro people, with whom Mary was playing, wanted to see my African pictures, - I went across the road, & the young people gathered around me while I showed the pictures; - among these people was the young woman, Miss Belle Robinson, who is almost white, & quite well-educated & well-spoken. In the evening, went to the White Sulphur Meeting, at Mrs Rosebery's; only a few there, but we made it interesting.

Tuesday Sept. 15: In the afternoon, came a Mrs Otis, from an adjacent place, Clifton, to visit Mrs Todd; she said she was formerly a Miss Barnes of Phila, & that I stayed a day at their house, when I preached for Rev Dr Clark, before I went to Africa. I have no recollection of all that: think she must be mistaken. At 3 P.M. came 10 ladies for Sewing Circle: and I showed them my African pictures, & conversed about Africa to them.

trunk & valise, & went to the R.R. station. to call a negro porter, to carry the trunks. Mrs. Round Rouse came in her carriage to drive us to her house, for dinner. Hi Jeff drove me with the satchel near to the station, & I checked my baggage. Rode with all the family to Mr Rouse's, - welcomed by Mrs R, - little Mary, & the 2 boys. Mrs R's family located, - Mary enjoying the turkeys, - cows, pigs, - went to gather corn for the turkeys. Talked about Africa. In evening, we all, (except Hattie who had walked back home) rode to Prayer Meeting, where I spoke on Our Mission: & Bade good-bye to some in the audience, Went to bed late: Mary very sleepy, on the way home from church.

Thursday Sept 17th. Rose early, - dressed self & Mary: ate breakfast at 6.15 A.M.; at 6.35 left the house in a hurry (left Mary's candy for little Beulah Roberson, the 6.45 colored girl). Hurried to the station, just in time, for Washington, by 8.45. (Waved our hands, as we passed the Rouse's). Met, in Washington station, by Cousin W.B. Nesbitt, talked, went to U.S. Museum: went to dairy Restaurant. Left at 10.57. At Quantico, got new ticket for me (baggage had been checked through) & had to pay additionally on the train for many. Train warm & dusty. At Richmond, about 2.45: hurried, on the transfer omnibus, across the city, to Danville depot, hurried & got tickets to Otterburn, & rechecked baggage, & with less than 5 minutes wait, were off in the train for Amelia C.H. (A man, before leaving the Washington train, had kindly bought my rebate ticket, as I had not time to collect it.) At Amelia C.H., Rev. G.C. Campbell suddenly came in the car, to welcome me. A young lady, in the seat in front of many, was despatched to tell Kindly to her children here. At Otterburn, were met by Mrs Campbell, Robbie, Karl, Edith & Mary Travis & Clara Holt (2 Mongrel Mulattoes). After supper, walked a mile to the Lithia Spring. In evening, Rev. Mr Wright (colored) came to see me, to engage me to preach on Sabbath.

Friday Sept. 15: Had a slight headache on rising; but, took a walk with Mrs Campbell to Amelia C.H.; was introduced to many people; the (colored) Mayor of Amelia, Mr. Mann: Lawyer Southall: Doctor Southall: Rev. Mr Griffeth (meth. preacher): General Humway (?): Early Wingo (colored) Supt of Sab. Sch., carpenter Wingo;

Bought medicine for my dyspepsia. Came back, with a bad headache, & cd eat no dinner. (Mary had cried bitterly, at finding her doll's head broken in the trunk.) In afternoon, a Mrs Montgomery & her little girl came, to call on Mrs Campbell; & Mr C. & Mary & I walked back with her to Amelia, & got the mail, & letters from Sons William, & Charles, & Capt Holt, & Mrs Bannerman, & Augustyena of Sept 1st. Mary went walking to see Mrs C's colt, with him & Karl. & long talk, at night, with Mrs. & Mrs C. about our African life.

Sat'y Sept. 19th. Wrote a long letter to Augustyena. Mary went with Mr. Campbell walking, & came back with nice persimmons. A colored woman, & Mrs Anderson & her 2 young girls, came to see Mrs C. & some of Mary's old clothing was given to them. In the afternoon, I took Mary to Bathe & play, in a small brook, with Karl. And, in the evening, after supper, Mrs C. & I, & Mary & Kathie & Carl, had pleasant walk to the Otterbein Lithia Spring; & came back, by moonlight: Mary sleepy, & did not wish to be bathed before going to bed. Had a conversation with Mr. Campbell, about Augustyena's former life, & explained some of the unjust things that had been said about her, & gave him my "Story of Argentina", to read.

On Monday 21st, rose early, and was off with Mrs Campbell, in her carriage to Bentsville, to see the large building being erected, as a Freedmen's Female Seminary. At Bentsville, waited awhile at a hotel, & then went for breakfast to the house of the architect, Mr Georgs. Old Mr G. very deaf: Young Mrs G. & their little boy. At the building, & then waited, with a Mr. Reilly, to dinner, at his house,

(Mrs. R. had known our family, at Easton Pa. & Durham Pa.,) the Longs, - the Wilsons - &c, He left me at his home, & went to show Mrs. Campbell another home & farm for sale. A long talk with Mrs Reilly, who had been a Miss Wilson, of Rev. Dr. Yeomans's ch., at Easton; & we talked over all the Easton names. A good dinner, when Mr R. & Mrs C. came back; & , after dinner, a Mr Ebie, a lawyer, came for a business call. Walked back to the building, & thence, to get my coat & say Good-by to Mrs George; & thence back on cars to Otterbein by 5. P. M., & met by Mary & the children at the station.

On Tuesday 22d, had a bad headache, & did do nothing all day, But Rev. Mr Denny, of the Southern Presb. ch., called to see me, late in the afternoon. And, after supper, Mr. & Mrs Campbell & I walked to call on Mr & Mrs D. & an aged maiden lady, a Miss Wood (?). (I called on Rev. Wright.) This & the ~~afternoon~~. On Wed.y 23d. I left, with many regrets, (for, I had enjoyed the visit at Mr Campbell's, & the had done several friendly acts, in mending some of my clothing) about 7. A. M., for Richmond. There, had to wait 3 hours, walked in the Park, near the Capitol, & many enjoyed the grey squirrels. Saw a parade. On to Washington, about 11.50. A.M. A dusty warm ride on the cars. Was met by cousin W. B. Hanson, at the depot, & he called a Hackie cab, for 75 cts, to take me to Mrs D. A. McKnight's, 1730 Corcoran st. Mr & Mrs Dr K. have no children. She was very attentive, & gave many who was hungry, a lunch. Mr Dr K. took me, in the evening to the Medical Congress, to hear Dr. S. Weir Mitchell read an address. (2 ladies, Miss Chester & Miss Childs, had called on me at Mrs McKnight's). At the address, saw & met Dr Pepper, of the Pa. University.

On Thursday 24th at 11. A.M., addressed the W. F. M. Presb. Soc., at the Ch. 13th st & N. J. ave, Rev. Dr. Bartlett. After the meeting, Rev. Dr Johnson, of Riddle University, & of India, introduced himself to me. Also an Armenian (or Persian) who had studied medicine with Rev Charles, at the University. Met many ladies & Mrs Paull, a relative of George Paull. W. B. Hanson was there, & a newspaper reporter. In afternoon, after Dr Johnson had dined with us & gone, Mr. McKnight called a cab, & took us to the Botanical Garden; saw many plants & trees, wh. I recognised of Africa. Had a long chat at night with Mrs McK. Had shared hers & Mrs McK's Argentyan's letter, & they were deeply interested in her.

On Friday 25th, I was to leave the house, at 10.15, so as to have time to claim my baggage at the depot, for 11. A.M. to Phila. But the cab. Mr McK, had summoned, did not come by 10.30, & I had to go out to seek a Hackie omnibus, & just missed the train. W. B. Nelson was at the station, & we sat & talked. I sent a telegram to Will. W.B.N. introduced me to a Mr Peters, connected with the Statistics of the Govt & Agricultural Dept. Left, at 12.15, a warm dusty ride, & reached Phila; met by Will, & Mary in the depot, & chatted for an hour; & then went on to Strafford, to Dr Thorton's. No one was in sight, when I reached the house, but Mrs Dr. was walking in the grounds, with a cousin of hers, from Westmoreland station, Pennsylvania. Young Arthur Morton came, in the evening.

Strafford, Pa. (Sept. 1891)

On Sat'y 26th I went into the city, leaving Mary with Mrs Morton & young Isabella, who played with Mary, & Mary enjoyed the pony "Goldie" & big dog "Captain" & fox-terrier "Robbie"; I went into Wills office & out to Queen Lane: got clean clothing: bought some trunks from the Station: opened the box of African daggers: selected them for Mr Lewis, Dr R.H. Davis, Rev. Dr Chandler, Synod, & Mrs Nassau. Went to Manheim Play-grounds & saw part of the cricket-game between 11 English gentlemen & 11 Phila gentlemen. Returned my hired to the city & had Mary's broken doll repaired: & had, in the morning, an unpleasant talk with Will about some money he needed: & heard of Charley's advancement in the hospitals. Came back to Strafford. Miss Helen Morton came back, in the evening, from New England.

On Sabbath I woke with an headache, & ate no breakfast. A very foggy A.M., but by 11.30 A.M. the fog began to clear off. To 2 P.M. dinner came two young men, a cousin & nephew of the Morton family. I regretted that there was no one going to church, & that the young men, during part of the afternoon, rose playing ball, & otherwise wasting the Sabbath time. I took Mary apart & taught her her Catechism lesson, & reading. Miss Morton went to the cars, to an adjoining village, to see a friend, & brought back a Miss Jane Selden, who spent the night here. In the evening, I showed to the company, the Ogow Photographs, - The Tour du Monde copy of De Brazza's Ogow travel, & my large Maps.

Monday Sept. 28th. Wrote several letters. Many busy out of doors with Isabella Morton. The day became cool, & I took some cold from sitting in a draft. Walked in the grounds & examined the plants & flowers, in the afternoon, with Mrs & Miss Morton. At dusk, in time for evening dinner, came Dr Morton & a friend Dr Collins.

Oct Friday 7th, in the morning, Dr Eastman went to Trenton, to seek a trained nurse for me. Dr Elmer recommended a Miss Mary Bowles, of Hanover st, Trenton, who had gone that day to Philadelphia. She was telegraphed for, returned immediately, and on Friday evening, she immediately took charge of me.

On Sabbath 11th, Sons & Allen and Charles, hearing of my sickness, respectfully came to see me, & remained for 2 hours.

During all this sickness, there came many visits of love, - many letters, and many kind messages. I forgot to date, I think, I remember the Cousins Ina (Davis) Stead, at Rogers Rock, Ina (Hamill) Wood, & Nellie Cane, though they did not come to my room, as I was too sick. Uncle Mr Robert Hamill, & Cousin Hugh Hamill, also called to see me, in my room: and Rev. Mr. Brooks, of Trenton: Mr Chas Potts, a nephew of the late, also came to my room.

Miss Power was a splendid nurse, a noble, kind woman. Sabbath 18th was the 4th Sabbath in succession that I had not been to church. On Monday 19th, the doctor wished me to be present at Synod, for Tuesday 20th. I was deeply troubled with the situation, had I been at Synod, I would have been elected President: the thought of that great honor inspired me very much. On Thursday 22nd I dressed, for the first time, but remained in my room. I played on the guitar, & sang for Miss Power, for an hour.

Marseille (Oct. 1891)

On Friday 23d, I dressed, & took breakfast in the morning; but, remained in my & Miss Gasman's room, & played again on Miss Powers's piano, & read down stairs, for dinner. Miss Gasman was seized with one of her severe headaches.

On Saty 24th I had breakfast in bed; but, dressed immediately afterwards. Miss Powers left, about 10. P.M. I eat down stairs, for dinner and supper. (On Friday night, I had, for more than an hour, been in correspondence with Mrs Bunbury, & Mr. Hare (not Augustus, but my returning to life & letter writing activity, & to Mr. Hare's kindness, at the sudden departure of Miss Powers, cheerful noble society.

On Sabbath 25th, rose & dressed for breakfast, & ate all my meals at the table; but, did not dare go out to church, as there had been ice formed during the night.

On Monday 26th. Miss Gasman still quite sick, & was considered as permanently reconend; but, I venture out of doors only carefully. Wrote a letter to [illegible]. On the day [illegible] (last Thursday) I wrote a short letter to Amyentyere.

Miss Belle Grasman packed my trunks & valise, in the morning of the 27th. It was a cold day, wind from N.W., & sky cold & cloudy. After dinner, I was all-covered up with coat & shawl, & with many nice kids, & Dr Grasman, was safely driven, in the close carriage, to Union depot, in comfortable time for the 3. P.M. train to Phila. Reached Broad St, at 4. P.M.; was met by a colored porter, whom Will had stationed to meet me, & went to his office: I had expected to go to Germantown, for my own print of broadcloth. But, it was finished, & was awaiting me at Godey's. Went, at once, to Germantown & my cold wind: had trunks carried over to the names, and, in the evening, with Mary & Jessie the trunk. On Wed^y a.m., wrote letters; and, in the afternoon, with Mary, ~~ajoined~~ to Iowa, in the stable, & selected clothing for the journey; & Mary packed them, that night. On the 29^th completed packing & the new coat, which yesterday I had sent to be slightly altered, was returned. In the afternoon, at 4 P.M. Mary, & 2 servants & baby, & Mary & I, started the former, to Broad st, & from the latter, I went to call on Dr Hunter (who was out of the city). The 6.25 P.M. train, the "Columbia Express" was late, & we did not leave till 7 P.M. Mary & Mary arrived just in time. A splendid train of Pullman cars; Mr Pullman's family were on board, in their special car. I was given a fine drawing-room, all to myself & Mary. After a hearty supper with Will, Mary & Mary on the cars.

On 30^th did not sleep well at night. Will & Mary left us (without seeing us, asleep) by daylight, at Pittsburg. I had a bilious sick headache all day & could do nothing to amuse them, who sat patiently all day, in my room, & who was not willing to leave me, or go alone to eat in the dining car. I rested often during the day, & ate nothing. Headache and nausea grew less, as we approached Chicago. Arrived there late, with only 10 minutes to spare, to get tickets for Burlington. Mary & I ate a slight supper on the cars. I changed my seat, during the night, to escape the draft of an open window, & leaving my umbrella at the former seat, it was carried out of the car, by mistake, by some ladies. At 8.15 P.M., from Mendota, sent a telegram to Mrs. W. Nassau, at Burlington, to meet us. Reached B. at midnight, & were met by Miss Eleanor & Young Max Green, & welcomed by Sister Ella (Mrs W. Nassau).

On the 31st, I remained in doors, fearing the cold.

On Sabbath, Nov. 1st, went to the Presb. ch., with sister Ella (not Mrs Green), & Rev. Dr. McClintock came to me, & invited me into the pulpit. But I declined. Mrs McC. Mrs Stevick & Mrs & Miss Nesbit, Rev. Mr Michael preached. In afternoon Mary & niece Mabel, went to revival services of the Evangelist, Rev. D. L. Davidson. Young Mrs Green came in the evening.

On Monday Nov. 2d, went with Sister Ella & niece Eleanor a.m. to a store, to buy a coat for Mary. Eleanor insisted on paying for it. And, Sister Ella, insisted in buying the material for a Habbalt dress. On Tuesday, at 8.30 a.m. went to dentist, Mr Cochran, to have my teeth attended to. & later on, in the morning, with Sister Ella, went Mary to inspect the Kindergarden school of Miss Margaret Kelly. Mary was so pleased that she was willing to stay, & see them the remainder of the morning, & Sister Ella & I left. In afternoon, a Miss Laura Jones & her niece, a Miss Harrison, called to see Mrs Sarah.

On Friday afternoon, rode around Burlington; the day was cold, but I enjoyed the ride, Played Logomach, in evening, till Mr Henry called to see me. Two young girl friends of Mabel's had come at 5. P.M., to pass valentines — candy with her. On Saty, was the first snow-fall of the season, & the first I many had ever seen. She said, "it looks like they were pulling feathers of chicken or birds"; as the flakes increased in size, she ran out on the front steps, caught the flakes in her hand, - in her mouth, - jumped, - danced, - laughed, - picked up some snow & gathered on the steps, &c. Rev. Mr Davidson, Episc. rector, proposed writing an acct. of his recent experience, for the "Hawkeye"; but,

Saturday Dec. 5th } Correcting proofs of Benga Grammar & writing Sabbath " 6th } letters on Sat. At the dentists, a little while, in the afternoon. And, with mabel, took many a few minutes' walk, to see the preparations for Christmas, in the shop windows. In evening, went to a vocal & instrumental Concert at the Opera house, the attraction being Madame Christine Nilsson Mrs C. H. Rand sang beautifully. Mr & Mrs Sutton were in the same loge with us. On Sabbath, arose with a headache.
Mary had expected to be released from her confinement to house; but, there had been a heavy snowfall, & must be cha, solely because it was to be communion, was with a dull headache, which increased; so that, when Dr Mc Clinton had risen & left the pulpit & came in the direction of the Vestry, I could scarcely keep up my head. Some 40 were admitted to the table: a glad gathering. I went home, rested; ate no dinner or supper; & lay in my room. At 6.30 P.M., felt better. At 8, Mr B. was well, & sat up 2 hours talking.

Monday Dec. 7th } The snow still lying heavy & sleighs Tuesday " 8th } out. Wrote, in the morning. In the afternoon, Mrs Treman got out her little cutter (a sleigh) and took Mary & me a fine sleighride, in the afternoon. And, at 4. P.M., I went, with Mary, to the dentists, & he examined her teeth, & found two bad ones. Mary behaved well. On returning home, went, with her & Mabel, shopping, & rewarded her with a nice pair of skates.

On Sunday, Mary resumed going to school; but, at 11. A.M., I went for her, and took her again to dentists, who began to operate on the bad teeth, she stood it well. In afternoon, we drove out sleighride with us all (except Eleanor). And, in evening, to Ch.-Christ & Scripps, at the Church. Ch. with Mary.

Monday Dec. 9th. While writing, in the morning, Mrs Bandy came from Kenosha. I hastened to the Kindergarden, & brought Mary home in the sled. I was overcome by the exertion & got a headache. (Before this, I had gone with Mrs Newman, to select a trunk, at Adams'.). Entertained Mrs Bandy with Mary all day. Mrs B. left, at 4. P.M., & I went to the dentists, for a little while. On my return,

Burlington (Dec. 1891)

Mrs Hassan went with me to Rankin's, the furrier's, to look at my cleaned African skin-robe. Her decision was favorable, by invitation, to tea. And, in the evening, came back with Mrs H. After Mrs H. was gone, we played together, with Mrs and Mr, Patricia to bed late.

Thursday Dec. 10th } went with Mrs Hassan, and decided on, Friday " 11th } and paid for, the new seal. It was sent here at noon. In afternoon, took my new valise to be labeled. Also went to Peterson's, & engaged 2 Hitchcock lamps. Went to Presb. Mon's For. Up early, in the morning, & breakfast: no hurry or fuss, because everything had been packed, and the baggage checked last night, about 6.30. A. M., left, in carriage, with Eleanor & Mabel, to see us off. Train was late; did not leave till 8. A. M. On the train, ate oranges & apples; but, did not feel like eating much. Mary amused with a little Swedish girl playing in the aisle of the car. At Chicago, by 1.30. P. M. was faint for food: got a cup of tea, & ate two Saratoga biscuit & bread & quail. Got tickets, on a sleeper, for Pittsburg. Left, on time, at 3.15 P. M. Same companion, about the possession of the section where our berth was located. After the train started, I arranged my valise & the small baggage, of the two ladies who were in the same section, so as to give room for the feet; I could not ride backward; so, I went to an adjacent section, & tried to get a cinder out of my eye & pained me, till I went to bed at night. Mary playing with a little girl, & the 2 ladies enjoying writing with her on a sheet of paper. Ate a good supper. Undressed Mary & put her to bed, after I had revealed to them 2 ladies who Mary was. On the 23d, Woke early: dressed Mary, in a vacant section, when a lady was dressing her 2 little girls. Left the sleeper, at Pittsburg; went through the station gates with Mary, & put her, and the valises on the train that was being made up; left her there, to go & buy a lunch: on returning, 5 minutes later, car 295 was gone, out to be made up with some Pullmans! It was anxious, for I did not back it again till 15 minutes: when I boarded it again, Mary had been crying, for fear I could not return. A cloudy rainy day

Mary fell asleep, in coming the Alleghenies, & was then found asleep, to be aroused to see the "Horseshoe Curve". I left her still sleeping, at altoona, to go & eat dinner. Train was late. After leaving Harrisburg, a drunken man in the car, whose presence annoyed Mary. At Broad St Philadelphia station, by P. P. R. met by Will. son At supper, at Germantown by P. P. R. Mary went to bed. & Mary (Mrs Nallard) came home late, from choir-practice.

On Thursday wrote letters. 3 letters from Helen, & Mr Gault, Argentine, & Africa.

Rainy day. In afternoon went to show Mary Wanamaker's exhibit: & then, to Stoppel, to Morton's, for Christmas. Had made a mistake: he was at their town house, & so returned by train to the city, & was at the Dr's house, just as they were at table. Was welcomed, & explanations made. Sat up late.

On the 25th, Woke early. Mary's delight over her filled stocking: the opening of gifts, after breakfast. Read Herodotus: & many played with Isabella Morton. At dinner: Mrs. Giddings, engaged to Miss Bertha Morton. A large company to supper. Mrs Kirkbride, & two her 2 sons & 2 daughters: Dr Kirkbride: Mr Cooper: Miss Child: Miss Belden(?) Miss Howe(?): ~~Mr & Mrs~~ Mrs Isaac Morton: and Dr Morton jr, and many Mrs. After supper, charades down stairs, & games of young people up stairs. Many enjoyed all. Retired late.

Sat. Dec. 26th } Allowed many to rise late; for, she Sabbath " 27th } had been up late last night: Got our gifts together, and packed them in a paper box, and left about 11. A. M.: came to Germantown. Both Will & Mary were out of the house; but, they returned to tea. On Sabbath went to Dr Wood's church; they were crowded, with the incomplete additions to the Church building: The day was cold, and began to rain. Mary said a very good catechism lesson, in the afternoon.

Philadelphia (Dec. 1891)

Monday Dec. 28th } Miss Anna Southard came from Tuesday " 29th } Newark, Del., to see Will & May, & was pleased to become acquainted with May and myself. In the morning I had taken May to the dentist, Dr Darby, recommended to us by Dr Cochran, of Burlington, & he And had gone to Dr Martin's to get her evening nightgown. made an appointment for her for Tuesday. In the evening, Anna & May & I went, with Will, to the Christmas Service, at Rev. Dr Reiss Sab. Sch.
May & I were observed, & the Supt., being told by a Mr Binder of us, brought Dr Reiss, to meet us &, at the distribution, May was given a box of candy & a doll, & I, Anna candy also; & I was called on for a short address. And, after the Exercises, a crowd gathered about May, to see & speak with her. On Tuesday, At 2. P. M, went to Dr Darby's with May, & to my surprise, instead of just making some preliminary treatment, he at once went to the cleaning of the cavity, & hurt her very much: but she endured it, though crying, but not resisting. I was very much provided for he was so different from Dr Cochran, ~~after~~ Chestnut St we went to 1334 & saw Miss Lombard, but did not stay long; for, she was very busy. In the evening, we were to have gone to a Hospital Singing, with Will & May. But, it was so raining ~~so~~ only Will went.

Wednesday Dec. 30th, Spent the morning in writing an account of "African Diseases", for Dr Morton. And, in the afternoon, began to copy it. In evening, went with Will, May, & Mary, to call on Mr Latta: found him, Mrs L, Mrs Bingham, Miss Mary Bingham, & Mr Al. Bingham at home, and spent the evening with them.

Thursday Dec. 31st } Finished the article, for Dr
Friday Jan'y 1st 1892 } Morton, in the morning:- In the afternoon, went with it to the Doctor's:- went to a Tailor on Callowhill St, to engage altering of the clothing rec'd from brother William:- and thence, to Germania Orchestra, at Academy of Fine Arts. Felt very dull with my cold. In evening, had to (of course) leave Mary go, with May, to her Mass Meeting at R.C. Church

Philadelphia, Pa (Jan'y 1892)

On Friday, Mary rose early, disappointed; but, I took her to the Colored Home; and brought Mrs Reed, for dinner, to Will's house. Late New Year's dinner, — Mrs Reed & Charley present. Gave Charley most of the remainder of the African shells, of wh. Mrs. Latta had taken part, & Will record choice. Will & Mary took Mrs Reed to her Home. We played Logomachy in the evening.

Sat'y Jan'y 2d 1892 } Rainy day:- Went with Mary to Sabbath " 3d " } dentists, in morning:- To Wanamakers, & ordered visiting cards: got cord, for Mary's muff: & arranged for alteration in my best coat:- Anna Southard called, in afternoon. Felt my low-spirits at night. On Sabbath a cold day, with flurries of snow. At Rev Dr Woods ch. At home, Mrs. Mercer called to see baby Bessie. Mary said a good lesson, in afternoon. In evening, when I, with her on my lap, was singing for her, I sang "Nearer my God to Thee;" and told her & Will wh. the hymn I sang as her Mother was dying: she was looking down: I did not see her face; she became quiet: went and lay on the sofa: & suddenly, in a low tone said, "When you paid off for my mother, did not you cry? It made me cry?"

Afterward, again on my lap, I had been talking about the love of Jesus; &, after a pause, she suddenly said "I wish I had been Jesus on earth!" "What would you have done, if you had been?" "She evades & said, "tell Just what you would have done". "I would have said "Jesus, if you are hungry I will feed you, or if you want me to get you water I will go." "But, I would wash his feet." It touched me very much, We had not been talking of Martha, or of Mary; & of the woman at the feast.

Monday Jan'y 4th. Day very cold:- My 4 trunks returned from Wanamaker's repaired. (cost $11.00). Prepared a marriage gift, for Dr Morton's daughter, Bertha, of 2 ivory hair-pins, - 2 African mattings, and 1 African dagger. Was disturbed, at dinner, thinking Mary had tried to deceive me; but, on investigation, found she was innocent. At 5. P.M., went to city, - left the gifts at Dr Morton's door, - went on to Wanamaker's, with my best coat, to have it attend: at 6. P.M. went to Dr Morton's, to supper @ 6.30. They all spoke so praisingly of my gift, & took me up stairs, to see the various gifts displayed. At 8 P.M. Rev. Dr Nason's ch., Germantown: he said he had met me 20 years ago, at Pa. State Agricultural College. At. 8.P.M. went with Dr M., to hear his Addess before the Annual meeting of the Phila College of Physicians: was introduced to Dr Atkinson: Dr Forbes, Mrs Dr Bennett, & others. After Dr M. had read his addess, I was called on to read the article I wrote for him last week. Dr Brinton was in the chair, but had to leave it, for an appointment, & called Dr Allis (the visiting Physician at Pract. Hospital) to take his place. After meeting, Dr M. took us to Bookaby's restaurant, & had oysters: Mr. Barlow came there, (Dr Wetherill was with us). Then, we went back to Dr Morton's, - got my missing eyeglass, - sat & talked with 2 Drs Morton, & Mr Barlow, & took midnight train to Mountains; had night keys; while getting to bed, Mary awoke; Mary is so good, about thanking for any service, when she is even half awake. Snow had begun to fall, about 6. P. M., & ground was white at 8. P. M.

112) Philadelphia (Jan'y 1892)

Tuesday Jany 5: Spent the whole day (a very cold day) in writing a long letter to Argentyna:- Will went out, in the evening, to be initiated as a Freemason:- There is whooping-cough next door, & Mrs Stewart is anxious lest Baby Bessie take it. Sat up late, reading a story in London Illustrated News.

Wed'y Jany 6: Cold blustery weather:- Wrote a letter to Nat. (in Africa) Gault:- Went to the tailor McCloskey's, to be measured for the alterations to be made in the clothing given from brother William: to the Post Office, to mail Argentyna's letter,- at this time, rain was falling,- then to Wanamaker's, to get my altered best coat. Back to this home, (Livelyfood) for lunch. Wrote letter to Alexander & Christie, about some money Argentyna had borrowed of them.

Near 5. P. M., went with Mary, to Wanamakers & bought her a sled:- Thence, to the ch. of the Epiphany, to witness the Wedding of Miss Bertha Morton & Mr John Riddle's. Then, to the Reception, at Dr Morton's: met many people,- Miss Holmes (?) of Germantown, Mr Thos Barlow,- Mr & Mrs Smith, & their daughter-in-law, of Germantown, Mrs Brown mother-in-law of young Dr Morton: and many others who gave me attention. Mary also was very much noticed. A Miss Dr Bennett engaged me to come to Norristown, and address the inmates of the Lunatic Asylum there, on Africa. There was a good deal of throwing of rice,- & the bridal slipper was tied to the carriage as the bridal party left. Left with Mary, at 8. P.M.: and she was in bed by 9. P.M. I sat up reading till 10. P.M.

Thursday Jan'y 7th. Writing all morning: began a letter to Ajiro, in Africa. My guitar came by Express from Warrenmark: and Mary's sled came from Wanamaker's. Immediately after lunch, went, with Mary to the dentist, for another hour of pain to her: he says this is the last,- tho he will want to see her once more, to smooth off the filling, & then to examine her teeth about once in 3 months, Then, to Wanamakers, to get Mary leggings & a comb; & my self collars & cuffs; Was tired with walking over that great house, & waiting for the Transfer. Caught the 5.06 P.M. train to Germantown, too late to gratify Mary with coasting on the adjacent hill. Will proposed going after supper, to Wissahickon Hill, with us all. But, Mary was anxious about baby's cough. I was tired, & the excursion wd keep Mary up late, & Will had a headache; so we did not go; but, he took Mary, a little while, to an adjacent hill.

Was directed, by a gentleman, at the depot, to house of Rev. O. Reed. Welcomed by Mrs R., her children Margaret, Allen, Theodore, & the baby. Theodore would not come to me, till next day. While sitting there till Mr R. came, a Mrs Thompson, whose husband is Pub. Ath. Pupil, & who entertained the Lord when he visited Montclair 2 years ago. Rev. Orville Reed came. In the evening, three called to see me, the Elder

Mr and Mrs Huntington (Mrs H. formerly of Dr Cuyler's at Brooklyn.)
Mr. Smith
Mr. Harrison
Mr. Doremus
Mr and Miss Ferris
Mr & Mrs & Miss Strong (Mrs S. a daughter of Rev. Dr Schenck).

On Sabbath, made mission address, for Mr Reed., and met Mr & 2 Misses French, children of Rev. Dr Ed. French, who gave me the "Self-Heard".

Also, a Mrs. Eaton & her father, Mr Pratt, (formerly in Ivory trade) the a Cong. miss'y in Mexico. Mr. Ludlam, Precenter of the church. Also, Miss Kellog. Went for dinner (after declining to address Sab. Sch. at Mr Thompsons) early to Mr Strong's: Has 3 sons: one of them known as William, at College. In afternoon, went to 3d. Presb. ch. (Rev. Mr. Reetan) and spoke, at close of Sab. Sch., for 20 minutes. People quite interested in my Accra gold chain. At night, spoke, for an hour, in answering written questions: Met Mrs Doremus: Mrs Ferris: Mrs Ludlam & her young soldier boy: Mrs Harrison (another daughter of Dr Hoech): Miss Barton, a school girl of Miss'y interest: Miss Priest, leader of young people's miss'y Band: Mrs Bussing, a rich ex-elder: Miss Gould a relation of our African missionaries, Dr Ford: Went to bed excited and interested, in the events of the day.

New York (Jany 1892)

On Monday 18th went with Mr. Reed, to New York, to the Mission House 53 Fifth Ave, & he left me there. I looked over my acct with the treasurer Dutles: & saw Dr Dennis, about the corrections to the Berga Hymns, wh. Mrs Butler did not approve of: decided my suggestions should not be noted at all. Mr Reed came; and took me to Ministers' monday-Meeting & met Rev. Gilman, of our Seny Class: also, Rev. A. B. King of Princeton College acquaintance: was invited to sit Co. mem, met Rev. Dr Birch, & thanked him for his procedures of the Rev Dr Briggs. Went with Rev. O. Reed, to Union Seny Alumni Association Feast, at a Restaurant. The Interesting address of Rev. J. W. Hagerman of Brooklyn, Written paper on "Charity Organisation" by Rev. C. D. Kellogg. — Or Children's Home, by — Barnard: & on "Tenement Houses". Sat at dinner, by Rev. Dr Hopwood, who engaged me to speak for him, in Newark, 2nd Sat. of March. (And I am to visit Mr Reed with Mary on Wed. of March 9th.).

(Mr. Reed took me (with rubbers) to get my packet at Mission House, in Nassau, on Elevated R. R.

to foot of Courtland st, on P.R.R. Tobacco smoke in the cars: left up my sleeves: had to go clear into Broad st: reached here at 7. P. M. & went to bed at once. On Tuesday ~~XXXX~~ felt very tired; but, went to Chestnut Hill, to Dr Hammonds: Mrs H. took me to Mrs McComb's; & I intended bringing Mary back at once; but, she and the McComb's so urged to stay, that I yielded. She and the twins, Ruth & Laura, went with their sleds, in the afternoon. Set up, at night, talking Africa with Mr & Mrs McComb.

On Wed'y, went, with Mary & the twins, to help them coast down an adjacent hill: too cold: left them, & came back. Went out with them again, in afternoon. At Dr Hammond's Wed'y evening prayer-meeting. Mrs Boswell: Mrs Owen: Mrs & Miss Montgomery: and Mrs Bates & Mr & Mrs Kerr. M. H.

On Thursday Jan'y 21st. The children bade good-bye; & about 11 A. M. we left Chestnut Hill: Laura accompanied us to the depot, & I dragged Mary & the valise on the sled. At Germantown. after lunch, went into the city, to Germain's Orchestra; to 18th & Market for Tooth-powder; met Dr Norton on the street: to 8th Pub., for the books I had ordered; to 9th & Chestnut, Robbins & Read, for Mary's Furs (her mother's); to Wanamaker's, for bed-room slippers for Mary: and home late. On train, met Miss Ithaca Adams & Dr Hammond's Infant School, who entertained Mary the whole way, & engaged her to come to her, in 10 days, for Junior Y. P. S. C. E. Will & Mary went out to a Reception in the city, in the evening.

Friday Jan'y 22d. Went out with Mary, with sleds coasting on the field, in the rear of this house, for an hour; and then wrote up diary & memoranda. Wrote to Rev. O. Reed of Montclair N.J. In afternoon, continued writing up accts & memoranda; & again went out, with Mary, for 1½ hour. Tied up in packages, for Africa, the Hymn-book, & Manual of Forms I had bought yesterday.

Saturday Jan'y 23d } Sat'y I remained here: went Sabbath " 24th } with Mary to slide. — Mari meeting. In afternoon, went to call on Mrs Parr, and made inquiries about a school for Mary. Heard of 6 schools within a mile of this house.

On Sabbath, weather cold and snowy. Her dissatisfaction with my home here, was aggravated by some unpleasant opinions of Mrs Willis, about R.R. Sabbath-travel: felt very much depressed. A good sermon, at 2d Wood's 1st. Germantown ch. Mary knew her catechism very poorly, in afternoon, & had a cry over it. Went to bed early at night, disheartened and troubled.

Monday Jan'y 25th: Wrote to Mr Swan, brother in law Rev about visiting Lambertville. Went into the city: posted documents to Ames, & registered letter to Rev Mr Purdy, the "Play of Argentine": to jeweler, & got my watch-chain: to Bd of Pub. & got mine Calendar: to barber's Fork no lunch. Rode on cars to Tulpehocken, & went to Walnut Lane School, to inquire about Mary coming there. A pleasant warm day. Logowacky at night. Felt less distressed than in the morning.

Germantown (Janʸ 1892)

Tuesday Janʸ 26ᵗʰ. Wrote an article for Stewart Culin, on "African Fetichism". Made notes for "Remarks on the Gorilla", for the Academy of Natural Sciences this evening. A very cold day. Was troubled with a headache all day. At 6. P. M., went with Mary to Dr Norton's, on invitation to tea & thence, with the Norton family, to Acad. Nat. Sci's, where Dr Chapman made his Report on his discovery of my 3 Gorilla crania: & I was called on to make some Remarks, wh. were well rec'd. An animated discussion against Rev. Dr McCook &, on the appointing of a leader, for the Peary Relief Arctic Expedition. Returned late, with Will & Mary. Very cold night.

Wednesday Janʸ 27ᵗʰ } Made no record on the 27ᵗʰ. Mary at her Parents Thursday " 28ᵗʰ } On the 28ᵗʰ took Mary to Mrs Richards' Walnut Lane School, to let her see how she liked it: she spent the morning there, I stayed in the school-room part of the time, - then, went to the R. R. station, & read papers till near 1. P. M., when I returned to the school & took Mary for the 1.11 P. M. train back to Green Lane. Left Mary sliding on ick in the street: went into the city to Germania Orchestra: called at Mrs Patton's, she was not at home. To Dr Morton's & explained about the gorilla skin's not having reached the Acad. Nat. Sci's. Took tea there: and thence, went with Dr & Mrs Morton & little Isabella Morton, to Association Hall, to hear the Swedish Singers, a female Quartette.

Friday Jan'y 29th. Wrote letters all morning, and enveloped newspapers, giving notices of my movements recently. In afternoon, the baby Bessie was taken out riding, in her baby-carriage, by the nurse, but was kept too long. (Mary began to be anxious. I went to 6 East Penn st, Germantn, and made an agreeable 2 hours visit on Mr Horace Smith. Returned to tea. An unpleasant time at supper-table. Finished addressing rolls of newspapers for Africa.

Saturday Jan'y 30th } Wrote letters, on Sat'y morning. After Sabbath " 31st } lunch, went with Mary to Chestnut Hill, to Mr. McCombs. Ruth & Laura were out wheeling baby Judith, in her carriage, and Mary ran after them, and played in the street, while I went into the house to Mrs McComb, till Mr. McC. came, in the evening. Read Miss Brinton's "Daily Scenes in Africa," recognised so many names of Liberian missionaries, of 30 years ago. Mr McC. took Mary & the twins to Mrs Stacca Adams', for sociable of Junior Christian Endeavor, from 7. P.M. till 9. P.M. I stayed, - when Lee soon returned, - & showed him my African pictures, till after 8.30, P.M., when we hurried to Mrs Adams, the children enjoyed their play very much. Met Mrs Earle, - & Mrs Rex, - and several Misses Adams, especially Miss Emma, who wished to be a Foreign missionary, but heart disease prevented. Am to go some day & tell her particulars about Africa. Mary prefered to stay with Mrs Adams, We returned to Mrs McC. This is Sabbath. Mrs McC. was delayed in getting to Ch. Dr Hammond invited me to speak again on Missions, at night. Mary still prefered to remain at Mrs Adams. But, she returned with the little girls, in afternoon, from Junior Endeavor. Very Garret Dudley came from Junior E. to see the Assyrian Pictures. Went to Dr Hammond's for tea; & spoke to his ch. on "Romance of Missions".

Monday Feby 1st. Left Mr McCombs rather hastily, to catch 8.25 train, from Chestnut Hill. Got off at Tulpehocken; went with May to school: was invited to lead the opening religious exercises of the school. Came back, to Queen Lane. Entered memoranda; wrote letters. At 1.15 P.M., met May from the cars from school. In afternoon, went to 4134 Pine st, to see Uncle Dr Robert Hamill; - rec'd. part of payment, from sale of Uncle Hughs lands. (Had just posted newspaper to Africa: & bought envelops at Wanamakers). Took lunch at Dewitts restaurant. Went out to Powelton Ave; there met Will, & May & Mary. Admiral R.R. Y.M.C.A., on Africa. A pleasant evening. Returned late.

Tuesday Feby 2d. We all rose late. Mary, during the night, had had pain in her, - came into my bed, - was restless, - had not slept well, & was unable to go to school. But, after breakfast, she felt better, and decided to go, with May, into the city to have Bessie's photo taken; but, just as they started rain began to fall, & they returned. I wrote many letters (one to Argentgens) & sent 7 copies of "Record", wh. contained a notice of my remarks on Eroida, at the Acad. Nat. Sci's. In the evening, May still had pain, & went to bed early. Will went to his Lodge; & I retired early.

Wed'y Feb'y 3d. May again starting to school; difficulty about her riding on cars, without the pass wh. includes her name with mine. Left her on Tulpohoken Platform, and returned to Dear Lamb. Wrote letters, & tried to make out the estimates for my proposed home in Africa, from the memoranda recently sent me from Hamburg, Germany; can not understand 2 certain contractions of financial terms. The day grew colder. May again not well, in the evening; she went to bed early. Will & May went out to their Choir. And I sat up reading.

Thursday Feb'y 4th. All morning, wrote on an article for the "Mid-Continent" or the "Political Influence of Iowa on our African Mission". Finished the first draft, in the afternoon. In afternoon, Will, Mayo Baby, & I, met Mary, as she got off the 1.11 P.M. train, from Tulpehocken, & took her on to the city, to take her & baby's photo. I came back, after seeing them on the train, & continued at the "Mid-Continent" article. In evening, went into the city, to Association Hall, to hear N. J. Shilhammer recite. Friday Feby 5th. Rose with a headache. Went, with Mary, on her way to school, as far as Chelton Ave: stopped off there, to inquire about my steamer-chairs, whether they had come from the dock at Christian st. Back to this house; was cold, & headache did not leave. Felt better after lunch, & meeting Mary back from school. In afternoon, went into city, & left a leopard-skin, to be cleaned at Thayer, 1032 Arch St: inquired about the meanings of Weisemann Figures, in his letter of estimates for a house. Went to Dr Chapman's, - he was at lunch. To Dr Morton's, - he was going out of town to Bristol. To Mr Patton's, & played there for supper, Hence, went to Academy of Music, & heard Germania Orchestra play the "Creation" & Felicien David's "Desert". Came home late.

Saturday Feby 6th } Mary was not well, all of Sab'y. After Sabbath " 7th } breakfast, went out, & bought, at drug store, calomel & rhubarb powder, - & sent 4 pts of water, & gave her the powder & quinine. Wrote letter; & looked all over Mary's play-box, to hunt for some lost keys, of mine, also some of Will's wife's. Arranging for Mary to go with me to Chestnut Hill, to stay over Sabbath, while I went to Mt. Airy church, to preach for Rev. W. P. White; but, at the last, Mary preferred to stay, & I was to walk out to her, on Sab. afternoon. Felt anxious about leaving her at 6.30 P.M. she was sick & asleep. Rode on cars to Allen Lane, - walked to corner of Germantown Ave, & Mt Pleasant ave, & down on Mt Pleasant ave, to Rev White's. was met by Mr & Mrs W., - & his sister, & daughter Kate, & 2 little boys. Their son, is in Princeton College. Mrs W. is a sister of Mrs McClintock, of Burlington Iowa. Kate goes to Norsame School as Mary.

On Sabbath preached on African missions, to a small audience; but, they were very attentive. After Service, was introduced to Mr. & Mrs Graham (formerly Miss Gibson) whom I had met at Mrs Patton's, some 11 years ago. She was surprised that I knew her: Also, Elder Tingley: and Mr Savage. And Mrs Graham's mother & sister: & Mr. Walker. After dinner, when the unexpected rain had ceased, started at 2. P. M, & walked down Germantown Ave to Coulter St, down Coulter to Wayne, down Wayne to Queen, & down Queen to this home. At the corner of Germantown ave & Coulter, a gentleman accosted me, who thought I looked like an old soldier friend of his; we talked a little while about Missions, to wh. he was a contributor, through the A. B. C. F. M. Mary was apparently well & very glad to see me. Mr Maree was here. Will & Mary Lyle, on their China business. Mary said a grace at table. After supper, I bathed her. And, we both went to bed early.

Monday Feb'y 8th. Mary had been my mother last night, & complaining of pain in her stomach; so she was late for first, thought of missing school; but, changed her mind, ate a slight breakfast, & went by a later train. I had a headache, but corrected the draft of my article for the "Arid-Continent". In afternoon, went with Mary, via Powelton Ave, in W. Philadelphia to the Presb. Hospital; saw Charley; was introduced to Rev. Dr Miller of Bryn Mawr; to Supt Johnson; to Chaplain Burt; was delighted with the Children's Ward: an accident case of a lad was brought in, while we were there. Returned by 4th car; got medicine at Mulford's; left Mary at Will's office; went to Lewellyn's, for Papoid tablets for Lucy to take to Mrs Thorne. Went to the Patten's, for supper & theme, with him, to Academy of Music, for Boston Symphony Orchestra. At its close, to the Union League, & the P. gave me a 10 days admission ticket. Caught the 10.35 train; came on 11.17. Found that baby Bessie had been having a bad attack of croupy whooping-cough. Wrote a card to my French teacher Madame Cuttebut, asking her not to name Wed'y, as the evening for her husband supper for me.

Tuesday Feb'y 9th. Received several letters: answered them; all the morning copied at the article for the "Mid-Continent". Bessie was much better; but, until I had asked the doctor, in her morning visit, as to needed care, about infection, I did not let Mary go into Bessie's room. Mary went to bed early; & I sat in our room, where it was warm, reading newspapers.

Germantown (Febuary 1892)

Wed'y Feb'y 10th. Finished the copying of the article for the "Mid-Continent". In afternoon, after lunch, went into the city; mailed the letter to "Mid-Continent"; walked back, up Chestnut st, to 17th & Chestnut, to the Opticians, Fox; to get my eye-glasses, which I had left for repair; down to the Union League; where I read magazines for an hour; hasted, on the st cars, up to Mr Patton's, to supper; & with him and Mrs P, went to Academy of Music, to hear Miss Emma Thursby sing. Back, by 11. P.M. While I was away, in the evening, Mary had had an attack of her colic.

Thursday Feb'y 11th. Snow in the morning, that soon turned to rain. Mary took offence at my accidently hunting her eye, while dressing in the morning, - became sullen, and making a pretext of a slight pain, decided not to go to school. As a punishment, after breakfast I therefore sent her to bed till she should overcome her vexation. She spent most of the morning in bed, & then confessed her ill feelings, & was forgiven. After lunch, took her to Germania Orchestra at 3. P. M., Thence, on omnibus, up Broad st, to Cousin Fanny Handy's (Mrs C. E. Armstrong, 2021 N. Broad st) for they were not at home, (Mary had taken medicine in morning, & had to ask the servant to be taken to the water-closet). Thence, to Mrs Phillips (Annie Handy's) 2009 Park ave. She welcomed us, & her daughter (adopted) May came in, while we were there. Thence, to Mrs Cuthbert's, 1502 Montgomery ave, for supper. Mary played tiddledewinks with them. Left there at 9. P. M., for Broad st, — 20 minutes ride down, in good time for 9.26. P. M. train home; and, in bed, by 10. P. M. The night had become very cold.

Friday Feby 12. Not having many letters to write, & the day being too cold in my room, to arrange my box of letters & papers, I sat in the sitting-room & read, for the first time, Stevenson's "Dr Jekyll & Mr Hyde". Wrote to Cousin Hattie Todd, to send to me, from Holmesville, my trunks of Mary's mother's wedding dress &c. In afternoon, went to Chestnut Hill, to Dr Hammond's, went with them V. F. M. S. & said a few remarks about the "Agave Scripture readers". Returned to Wills, for 6.30 supper. Played Lagomachy in the evening, sat up & read newspapers. The night my cold, with extra covers.

Saturday Feby 17th } On Saty, in the morning, went with the Sabbath " 18th } city with Mary. Very cold. Went to Dr Morton's, & left Mary to play with Isabella, while I went to buy some snuff vials: called at "Prot. Journal" Office, &, at the Prof of Penman, to inquire about taking Lessons. Took lunch at Dr Morton's, a Mr Morgan there, an Englishman, & Miss Peddon from Stratford. Went with Mary to Keller's Magic: a little girl was added to the attractions there, who danced Spanish dance, wh. was somewhat indecent. On the way back, bought Mary a comb: got our things at Dr Morton's: near the public buildings, gave Mary a new, strong, telescope tram, of the pea shots: bought her bananas.

Philadelphia (February 1892)

On Sabbath 14th, went with Mary to Rev. Dr J. E. Wright's church, Market Square, Germantown. After service, Dr W. came & spoke to me, introduced me to 2 Misses Davis, - a young one & an old one; to Mr Scott; & to Genl. Louis Wagner. Mrs Mance was at the house for the day, & Mr Mance also came. Mary paid good heed in the afternoon.

Monday Feby 15th. Looked over a part of the box of old letters from Africa. In afternoon, went into city: bought some more empty bottles, for putting in the cyprus-oil; spent an hour at Prof. Kirsch's free Lecture on Germany, & entered my name as pupil: bought at Fortune's, under Y. M. C. A. Hall, a bottle of glycerole, for Mary's chaps. In evening, Mary was out my self, but, after putting her to bed, went with Will & Mary to Mrs Latta's, met there Mr Thos. Latta, Mrs. John Latta, Capt. Ulmer, Capt Bates, & a Miss McKnight.

Tuesday Feby 16th. Looked over a number of old letters, - destroyed a quantity: and answered & wrote, for information, several others. Sent Augustus a short letter with some Almanacs. In evening, went, with Will & Mary, to see Lizzie Davis, at her boarding-place 1804 Vineyard st (near Poplar). Found her with 8 visitors, a Mrs Pershing & Mrs & Miss Bowman, formerly of Orangeville, & Easton, & now of this city. Had a pleasant evening.

Wed'y Feb'y 17th. Read & wrote; and made some corrections in my Diary of 1885. In afternoon, posted the Almanacs for Argentine; & at 4 P.M., attended first lesson in German with Prof. Reisch. Bought Mary some bananas; but, on my return, found she had had her colicky pain and was asleep. Will & Mary went out to their choir rehearsal; I put Mary to bed, gave her medicine; and, as she felt better, left her, & went to Prayer meeting at Dr Wright's, Franklin Square ch. After returning, sat up & read newspapers till Will & Mary returned.

Thursday Feb'y 18th } Will & Mary went to a concert, at Friday " 19th } Atlantic City, this morning. Mary went to school. In afternoon, after her return I went to German, & remained to evening Class.

taking my lunch, in the city - at Bennett's restaurant. Incident of a little boot-black begging me to let him shine my shoes, for even 1 cent, as he feared to go to his cruel father penniless. I allowed him, & then gave him 5 cts. On Friday, went with Mary, on the cars to Tulpehocken; & came back.; wrote some notes on German; went into the city, to Edmans. Returned at noon, & went with Mary to Chestnut Hill. Went to Mrs Adams, Emma, & talked about Africa with her. for 2 hours, while Mary played with Nieta Adams. Went for tea, to the McCombs, & in evening, talked Africa, with Emma, for more than 2 hours, with 40, whom he had invited to his parlor.

Saturday Febʸ 20ᵗʰ } Returned from Chestnut Hill, & at-Sabbath " 21ˢᵗ } tended to some letters; and, in the Monday " 22ⁿᵈ } afternoon, went again to the McCombs; and, at 3. P. M., accompanied the little girls, to the church, for their meeting, & passed on to Miss Adams for another 3 hours conference. Back to the McCombs. Had a headache.

Rose on Sabbath, with a headache; but, it diminished, at time to go to church. After church, went with Dr Hammond, to his house; remained there; & for tea went to Mrs Boswell's & Mrs Owen, & Mr. McCorkle was there. After supper, addressed the Christian Endeavor & sat in the pulpit with Dr Hammond. On Monday, brought many on at 6 Tulpehocken; came on to Queen st; got off to get my German book, went into 10. A. M. lesson; came back; lunched; & with Will, met many on train from school; went down market & Second, to Am. Line wharf, to Mr Mayer's office, - he sent a messenger with me to a ship "Clipper (?) at pier 57, & admitted on the vessel, & saw the "Indiana" sail, loaded with food for Russia. Incidents on the vessel of the captain's careful division of woman first to get off the vessel. Was my friend, on return to Queen st; after supper, went in to German lesson, but did not get along well. Tuesday Feby 23d. Went into the city for 10. A. M. lesson; at 11. rode down to 3d & Walnut (307) to the office of American Line steamer; & took the freight agent about Mrs. Mayer's directions of yesterday regarding ~~the~~ my steamer-chairs; he was very attentive, and said he wd. see to the matter himself. Rode back to 1334 (Bd. of Pub.), before 12. noon, & waited for Rev. Dr Chandler; who, about 12.15, came with Mrs Chandler, & we had a little chat for half-hour; missed my 12.40 train back to Queen Lane, & took the 1.13 P.M. So, Mary had landed from her school-train by herself. Wrote letters, in afternoon, & missed the 3.25 P.M. train to my German lesson, thinking the train was at 1.30. Felt disappointed, fat and need German for myself. Mary developed some of her peculiar pain in her back. I expected, meanwhile, to go to German in the evening (giving up some music at the Academy, wh. I wd. have gone to, if I had not missed the afternoon German), as (Mrs Nelson) Mary expected be at home, & wd. take care of Mary. But, when Will came to supper, he had a call, for himself & Mary, at the Rev. Dr Newkirk's church revival services. So, I decided to remain into Mary, who was worse. But, just after supper, she vomited & felt better, - I put her to bed early; and got off to my German, in time. In going hastily out of Mary's room, I knocked down the little bureau, & broke part of it.

Wedʸ Febʸ 24ᵗʰ. Came a letter from Argentyne & also from Etyani (Africa). Put up some photographs, & also seeds, for Africa, & a letter to Argentyne, & posted them, in the afternoon, after the German lesson. When I left Mary in the afternoon, she was alone (Mary being expected back in half hour) & she had a very slight earache. When I returned, late before supper, found her in Mary's lap, & ear tied up, & had been crying with pain. As she was better in the evening, & out of pain, we went into the city again, I to German, & Mary to her choir. I returned by the 9.26. train P.M. But a R.R. wreck prevented the return of Will & Mary, till after midnight.

Thursday Febʸ 25ᵗʰ. Mary was not well, & I allowed her to remain away from school. Went into German, in the morning, & also in the afternoon. In the evening, went, with Will, May & Mary, to a Social supper, at Dr Colfelt's, Broad & Oxford church. Mr Patton met us at the door, & paid Mary's & my entrance. We met Dr Cousin, Mrs Annie Phillips, & Mr Armstrong, & Mrs Patton, & Mrs Mc Monigle, widow of Rev Mr Monigle. A company was already at the table, Was introduced to Dr Colfelt, & introduced Will & May. At the table, met Cousin Fanny (Handy) Armstrong; Mary's stomach began to trouble her. All 6 of us rode down 16th st cars. Mr & Mrs Patton got off at Wallace st, & we went on, in exact time, for the 10.02 train to home. Mary was out of pain, but exceedingly sleepy.

Friday Feby 26th. Went into German in morning. In afternoon, after lunch, took Mary into the city, to the dentist Tissard, recommended by Mrs McComb & to Dr Morton, - he was not in. to my German school, - the ladies there noticed May kindly. Again to Dr Morton's, he was still out. Returned my visit, & retired early at night into Mary. My knee still hurts me, where I struck it, some days ago, against the door - machine that was always located in the dark, at the foot of the stairs.

Saturday Feby 27th } Took Mary to Chestnut Hill, to Miss Adams
Sabbath " 28th } & left her there, while I went to Mr McCurdy's to see whether I sh.d come to "Bethesda" in the afternoon: Found that little Barnett McComb had a broken arm; & the appointment for Bethesda wd have to wait for another week. Came back, & on the way here, got off at Chelton ave Station, & found my steamer-chair there, paid the R.R. freight, got receipt, came on to the city; went to Mr Charley's, & paid my bill for tailoring. Came back here & wrote. About 5.30 P.M. Lizzie Davis came to call here; & after supper, she, Will, & Mary went into the city, to his Organ, to play for Mr. & Mrs Patten; & I went for Mary. Returned with her, & put her to bed; & then my tired, went to bed myself.

On Sabbath, a Mr. Schall came in a carriage for me, & I went with Mary, to preach at Rev. Hectner's Methodist ch, Mt. Pleasant ave, Chestnut Hill. Mr S. left me at the ch. with Mr Neilson, & when Mr Hectner came, I addressed the Annual Missy Collection. They took up about $90.: went with Mr. Neilson to dinner. In afternoon, addressed the Sch. Sch., & they took up their Annual collection. Very large & warm earnest people. Mr Schall brought us back by 5, P.M., a pleasant drive not a fast horse, though the day was very cold. (Mary had a good Catechism lesson, & we closed a pleasant day.

Monday Feby 29th. A cold day. Mrs Mance & the seamstress came early, to sew for Will's wife. Left the sitting-room to them, & sat in my room & wrote. Wrote to Rev. Dr. H.S. W. Murphy, - for Charles, & Prof. E.D. Cope.. And read over & made some omitted entries, in my Diary of 1882-88. In afternoon, to German lesson, after that, to the farrier, - got the leopard skin I had had cleaned, - They will not buy the African furs of Mrs Ella Stanwan, which I had bought from Burlington; was disappointed; & was also annoyed by their question whether I will leave Mary in this country; - a question which I am annoyed with by every stranger asking me, as soon as he is introduced to me. In the evening, to German lesson. A cold windy, rainy, & snowy night.

Philadelphia (March 1892)

Tuesday March 1st. Wrote a letter to Argentynes, Snow falling heavily, but melting as it fell. Into German lessons, both afternoon & evening. In evening, went in on same train as Mary, & returned at night on the same train with her & Miss Upsin, of Wills choir. Snow finally getting a hold on the ground.

Wed'y March 2nd } Thursday " 3rd } When Mary returned from school, on Wed'y afternoon I joined her on the train, & took her into the city to Dentist Tizzard: he attended to 2 of her teeth; thence, to restaurant, & got her lunch & new mitten: thence, to Wills' office, & left her there, while I went to German: After German, back to Wills' & took Mary to see the Dog Show; Never knew; and I came in again to German, in evening. On Thursday, morning, to German: afternoon with Mary to Vineyard St, where cousin Lizzie Davis lives, to bring Addie Davis here for tea, & Will, on a later train, brought Lizzie; &, after supper, we 4 & Mrs Norman, all went to a Chorus at the Mendelssohn, in Musical Fund Hall. A large Crowd. Incident of Lizzie's [illegible] becoming entangled in the bonnet of another lady. Returned late home. A very cold night.

Friday March 4th. Went into German town for 10. A.M. After lesson, met Will's wife at the 15th St. Station gate, who had a bundle of bottles, & got on the train for here: Will also appeared on the train, after we had started: passed the Westmoreland station, - were signaled to stop, - news of a wreck at Chelton, - waited long, - backed to Germanton Junction, - waited till all the down trains passed down, - then went up on the down track. Will's room time was exhausted, so he got off at the Junction, & returned to the city. Mary alighted at Queen Lane, & I went on to Tulpehocken to comfort Mary if she was delayed there. Had to wait half-hour till the train returned from Chestnut Hill, about 1.30. P.M. After lunch, at home, took Mary to Chestnut Hill, to see Mr Combs; she was away at Miss Y Meeting, & the 2 little girls had not yet returned from public school. Left Mary, & returned here by 5. P.M. In evening, again into German town: after wh, went to Will's organ, & heard him play, & returned home with him & his wife, all my tired.

Satty March 5th } Busy with writing letters & memoranda Sabbath " 6th } all morning. In afternoon, at 3.00 PM took cars for Germantown Junction, - caught an express, at 3.15, for Newark. N.J. there in about 2 hours. - at Market st station, took electric cars a short distance to Broad, & exchanged down (south) Broad on Yellow (Bloomfield) car to Mulberry st, - walked down (east) Mulberry to No 79, & Rev Dr Hopwood's home; met by him. Mrs Hopwood, young Winifred their daughter, & Mr Clifford Hopwood their son, & Mr Berry, Mrs Dr's brother. At night, Dr H. took me to see his church, & put up map of Africa, while the choir was rehearsing. On Sabbath Addressed his Ch., at morning services. And, at dinner, came Mr Clifford Hopwood's betrothed, Miss Tucker, to dinner: & Miss T's sister came after dinner, to go to their Sab. Sch. I went, at 3.30, to see Dr H's Sab. Sch., & made them a short address. After supper, Mr C. Hopwood escorted me to Rev Dr Hollifield's residence, - I saw his 2 little-girls, who were anxious to see Mary. Went with him to his church, and addressed his congregation; felt quite free, and spoke easily for 50 minutes. Mr Wm Rankin Jr was present. Was introduced to several people. a Mrs —— ? daughter of Mr Quinton, formerly of Trenton: Mr & Mrs Jackson. Dr Hopwood came for me & he & I escorted Mr Rankin to his house.

Newark, N.J. (March 1892) Chestnut Hill

(Monday March 7): Rose early; had breakfast at 7.15 A.M. Dr Hopwood walked with me to a near station of the R.R., Emmet St., rode north to Market St, & there, at 7.50, got the express from N.Y. Intended to get to German town. But, when, on arrival at Germantown Junction, I saw the time was 9.50, I saw I was too late, - left & caught immediately the train for Queen Lane. Found letters for me from Mrs Williams of Detroit, Mich. Mrs Nassau of Warsaw N.Y. & a telegram from sister Tillie, with the news of the death of her daughter Tillie, & a memorandum from Will, for me to see him in afternoon, & be ready to go to Tyrone to-night, at 11.20. Went to Chestnut Hill, on 10.23 A.M. train, - hacked to Mrs McCombi, - got many's valise, - hailed boat to Queen Lane by 11.10 train. Arranged plans in my mind for return from Tyrone, in order to fill preaching appointment for Wed'y night, at Montclair: & to address Stewart Pl'y W. F. M. S., on Friday March 25th. Met Mary on cars, at 1.15, P. M.; went in with her to dentist Tizzard, - intending to leave Mary with him there, to Will's office, to arrange for journey; there, to German lesson at 4 P. M.)

(On the 7th did not leave Mary in Will's office as he was too busy, but took her with me to the Junior Prayer & directed him to send the furs & Skins to Warsaw, N. Y. Then, went to Post-office, to post photo of "Bouguelais passenger group to Rev. & S. H. Dunphy at Chatfield; then, to German lesson with Mary; & then, back to Queen Lane. Rest, immediately after supper, returned to German; & then, being very tired, went to bed on the Pullman train (of 11.25. P. M.), at 10. P. M. On morning of the 8th, at 7. A. M. supposing we were approaching Tyrone, hurried to dress: but the foster told me we were only at Smyrna; that there had been a wreck near Dennington, Md., from Phila, & had sent us away down to Wilmington, Del. & Point Deposit, Md. & around by Columbia, Pa., reached Tyrone at 9.30. P.M., the Warminsmark train had been detained for my train, &, as it, I found Mr & Mrs Robert Lowie, & Misses La Porte & Edwards, & Dr Baird. At Sister Louie's, by 10. A.M., Breakfasted at 10.30., Met Sister in her room. Met Sister Bella & niece Belle Eastman, Rector, & tried to comfort Sister Tillie. Funeral services at 4. P.M.; & rode to the cemetery, with Mr & Mrs Robert Lowie & Belle Eastman. Delay at the grave, because of the excavation being too small, Company gradually dispersing, Evening Family-prayers, &, at 7.45, left, in a 2-horse carriage, for Tyrone. A rapid rough drive, making the 7 miles in 1 hour. Shortly after 10. P.M., took 2d Section of Phila. Express: at Bond of the 2d at Station, Phila., by 4.30. A.M., Slept there till 6. A.M., Left about 7. A.M., for Queen Lane, & was met by Mary. Went into Germantown. Returned, Packed my valise, & joined Mary on her train from School, at 1.15. P.M.; to Germantown

Montclair N.J. (March 1892) New York City

Junction, thence, by New York Express, to Newark; across the city on street cars, to Del. & Lackawanna Road & station, & thence to Montclair. At, the Rev Mr Reed's about 5. P.M., & met by him, & his little children at the window. In evening, ~~took~~ "Story of a Day at African Mission Station", to united congregations of Mr Reed & Dr W. F. Junkin. Met Dr J. & Mrs J.; & Mr & Mrs Strong, & Mr & Mrs Ludlam, & others again met me. On morning of the 10th at 9.13, went via Newark to New York, to Mission House; got some Banga grammar; got the lastpaid sheet of the 1st of Hippo sheet: got my salary-balance, for the year closing May 25th (less $100. still to be drawn). Saw Dr Dennis, & read about difficulty, in the Mission, with Dr McMillan. Returned to Montclair; had a talk with Mrs Reed about her offer to take charge of Mary for me, & when I return to Africa. Went at 6. P.M., to supper with Dr Junkin, where, at 7.30. P.M., came a carriage, from Rev. Dr Ballantine, of Bloomfield, & I addressed his people on Mission, was introduced to many, & met a Mr Mann, son of Rev. Dr Mann, & his wife.

who was a daughter of Mr Peter Carter. Returned to the Reids. Mary was cold at night & came into my bed. On the 11th, Mary slept very late, so that she scarcely got through her breakfast for us to go, by 9.13 train. Mr Reed walked with me, & talked about the offer to take care of Mary. Very cold windy day. Got cars across ferry, in good time, & caught 9.58 A.M. train, to Phila, by 12, noon. Left my satchel with Will, in his office: went with Mary to Mrs Patten's, for lunch. Thence, to the dentist Tizzard, by 2. P.M.: thence, to Rev. Dr Reiss church, & left Mary, for her to meet Will's wife & go home with her: thence, I went to German school: And back to Queen Lane. And into German again, at night.

Saturday March 12th. At 1. A.M., Mary was seized with a chill, which was not ordinary cold, but reminded me of my congestive chill of last Oct., & I feared pneumonia. At 1.30. A.M., gave her 8 grains of quinine: by 2. A.M., she again slept, & by 4. A.M., was perspiring & felt too warm, & the quinine had made her talk at random, & hear hoarsely. She was sleeping soundly at 7. A.M. And, near 9. A. M., went into the city, for Dr Morton., He was too busy; & gave me the address of Dr Jas Darnall, at 9.30 5021 Green st, Germantown. Returned, on the cars, to Chelten ave; Dr. D. was not at home. Left Dr Morton's letter of Introduction, Returned on cars, by 11. A. M., to Green Lane, & found May apparently much better, & Willis wife reading to her. Sat by May & wrote letter, while I kept her company. Dr Darnall came at 2. P. M, & did not find any dangerous symptoms. He gave prescription for liver & cough, wh. May got when she went out with baby. Gave May first dose at 3.30. P. M. Mr & Mrs Patten, & Mem Alexander & Elliott came for supper, & the 2 gentlemen stayed for music. In the evening, came, by local express, May's missing fur collar, from Mrs McCamb of Chestnut Hill &, May very much better & appetite returning.

I

Sabbath March 13th. May better, but still in bed. Sat with her all day. Dr Darnall came, at noon. I read with May, & she did not feel the tedium of her confinement to bed.
A heavy snow-fall, during the day.

Germantown (March 1892)

Monday March 14th. Sat with Mary, all morning, who was in bed. Wrote many letters. Dr Darnell came about noon: he gave a new prescription & I went to the druggists on Queen st, to have it filled: he had quite a cordial talk with me, about missions. In afternoon, went into German school. Returned, & found May was with Mary amusing her. In evening, gave Mary her purgative, & she fell asleep at once, & I went into German. Came back, & sat up reading newspapers.

Tuesday March 15th } The purgative operated strongly Wed'y March 16th } on Mary: but she was allowed to get up, & kept only in warm room. Went to German twice. On Wed'y, May was not up early, I went at 8.21 A.M., to Chestnut Hill, to Mrs McComb & arranged for the 2 little girls to come on Set'y to see Mary: hurried back & passed, by train, into the city, in time for 10. A. M. German. Back on train, & passed on to Tulpehocken & paid Mary's tuition bill: was detained 25 minutes at Tulpehocken station, for train from Chestnut Hill. Back at Queen Lane, at 1. P.M. Mary was up, but weak from operation of medicine. Went to ~~Mrs~~ Dr Tyzzard & ~~extend~~ May for not being able to come to be operated on her teeth, Walked to Entrekin's, the photog. & got some of the photos of May & Bessie, Walked away down to German, Got May some chambris, & oysters for supper, & stayed with her in the evening

Thursday March 17th, May was very weak, sleepy & in bed all day. I stayed with her all day: read to her, & wrote letters. A confusing letter from Rev Dr Chandler, disarranging the dates of my visiting in New Jersey next week, May ate nothing all day, but 2 oranges, until evening, when she seemed much better & ate some corn-starch gruel. Was all afternoon & night, Went to German, in evening.

Friday March 18th. May much better, but still weak: but bowels improving: Sat with her, in the sitting room, while she played quietly & I wrote. In afternoon, went in to the city early & posted photographs of May & Bessie to Avijentyuri & Mrs Ford, & a letter to the former. At German lesson. On returning, bought apples, oranges, bananas, figs, & nuts, for Mary's proposed little party to-morrow, for Robt & Laura McComb. In evening, went to the Academy of Music, to Concert of Pennsylvania College Glee & Banjo & Mandolin Clubs; but, left before the performance was over, wearied with the triviality of the affair.

Germantown (March 1892)

Satd March 19th } Wrote Sabbath A.M. Rea noon, went to Sabbath " 20th } Chestnut Hill, to lunch at Dan McComb's. There, by appointment, met young Mr Kerr, M.H. for conversation about becoming a Jr. Mason. After lunch, he, in name of the Y.P.S.C.E., made me a present of a "Life of Christ." Left, with the 2 twins, & was at Dean Lane by 2. P.M., for them to spend the afternoon with Mary who enjoyed the little tea-party very much. Mrs McComb came, in great haste at 6.30, for the 2 children. I went in, at night, to hear the Marine Band, at Academy of Music, - my first. Got home late at night. On Sabbath, Mary my much better; but, I feared to have her walk. Went to Dr Wright's A.M. - (Market Square) with the Sab. Sch.; & just as we went into ch., came a telegram announcing the death of Mrs Wrights' father, in Pittsburg. Preached in Africa. Took dinner with the Wrights. Came home to May, & found her very ill; & Mr. Marie come to visit. May said a good catechism lesson. I bathed her, just before going to bed.

Have made no entries all these days. Forgot about the 21st. Think I took May to the dentists, in afternoon, & in evening went to Germantown.

On Tuesday 22d, went to Germantown in morning; presented compliments of the season & my resolutions. Miss Trumbull gave me her German note, & waited time her missionary "Nothing to you!"

Joan, & in afternoon, took May to dentists: he kindly charged nothing. Went to Mrs Patten's, for tea; & Will & May came there also, Miss Edith Macrider. Returned to home early.

On Wed'y 23d. Went 8.20. A.M., via Germantown Junction, Bayhead N.J. (March 1892) Freehold. N.J.

Trenton, Monmouth Junction, Freehold & Sea Girt. Changed cars down to Bayhead. Rainy day. Mr Foster met us, with a carriage. Mrs F. with the children, Julia's, Edward, - and Mary, Walter, Ruth, Samuel, & baby Charlie. In afternoon, walked with the children on the beach; Mary enjoyed a romp there, even though the day was raw & chilly. Fire in Mr. Foster's chimney, - excitement for 2 hours, - Mary quite alarmed. On Thursday, about 10. A.M. rode, in carriage, to Point Pleasant, & took cars to Asbury Park. Beautiful day. On omnibus, to the Rev. Dr Chandler's, - Dr & Mrs C. & Miss Annie C. Took dinner, - but had just walked with Dr C. & Mary along the beach, to the wreck of the iron ship "Windermere." At 3.30. P.M., addressed Dr C.'s W. F. M. S., & had to leave hastily, at 4.10., to take the 4.20 train for Freehold. At Freehold by 5.10. P.M., and met by Mr. & Mrs Oscar Robinson & Stair for Willie. After supper, there came, to call on Mary, Mrs ex-Gov. Parker, Rev. & Mrs Smith, of the Presb. ch., & many other ladies, friends of Mary's mother. Mrs Robinson gave Mary a very large doll.

On Friday Mar. 25th, about 9. A. M., left Freehold, &, by way of Monmouth Junction, went to Newark, by 11. A.M. took a cab. to Mrs Wm Rankin's, by 11.30; left bags, & was at ch. by 11.45, with Mr R. At 12. o'clock addressed the Newark Pby W. F. M. S. Mary sat on the platform with me. At lunch, sat near Mrs Rev. Dr Stevenson, Mrs Rev. Dr Brainard, Mrs ex-Gov. Bedle, & Rev. S. B. Hopwood. Very many ladies talking with & about Mary, Mrs Morrison of China, - Mrs Cook of Caldwell, - Mrs Smith of Caldwell, Mrs Morrison of China, & scores of others. Mary my text, & I was taking cold with drafts of air. Heard Mrs Imai of Japan, & Assistant Rec'g Sheer. At Mr Rankin's for supper.

On Sat'y left early to take 8.23 P. R. R. train to Trenton by 9.30. A. M. on street cars to Lawrenceville stage office; out to Lawrenceville Parsonage, Dr Gerow & Lettie Gowen not my all.

On Sabbath 27th, my raing. I had not slept well at night, thinking of the sickness of last Oct., in this very room & bed. Preached, in the morning, for Dr G., who was not able to be out. Snow fell heavily in afternoon.

On Monday March 28th, In Dr G's wagon, to Trenton, for the 10.10 A.M. train, to Phila.: left at Germantown Junction. Read accumulated letters. At 4. P.M., went to Chestnut Hill, to see the McCooks for a little while: came back to the Latta's, at Wissahickon Heights, where May & Mary already were; & Will came later. We took tea, but the Latta's were detained at his office.

Tuesday Mar. 29th. Went to druggists, & to tailor's, to get my clothes that were being repaired. Back to the house, & got out trunks, & looked over clothing. And wrote letter to Mrs Malone, & sent her Mary's photog. When May came. Went from the city, she helped me select clothing, for self & May, for our 2 months' visiting to Warsaw &c. Continued at packing myself, doing the packing, in the afternoon and wrote up this diary. Don Charley is expected home this evening, to tea. And I want to write to my Darling, Treasure & to Sister Tillie. Mary's cold is worse than it was yesterday.

Wed'y March 30th. Rose early: closed the last articles in the trunk: had to waken Mary, & hurried her to dress. Went to the station, to call a porter: none were there. The station ticket-agent himself came, & I & he carried the trunk across. Left, in haste, at 8.23 A. M., to Broad st: changed to Western train at 8.50: a pleasant day, & pretty view of spring farms. No time to get lunch, at Harrisburg. At Northumberland, about 1.45 P. M., changed, got tickets, & rechecked baggage to Bloomsburg: & there with 5 minutes time, got tickets & checked baggage to Orangeville: there by 3.15 P. M., Cousin Rev. R. H. Davis. At the evening prayer meeting, addressed the company. Trenton & Davis Away home, on vacation.

Thursday March 31st. Mary rose late & tired, & with a pain in one of her toes, with which she cried; but, it disappeared, during the morning. Little Louie Jolly came to spend the day with Mary, & they had a nice play with Mary's 2 big dolls. I wrote several letters. Snow fell heavily in afternoon; but it soon disappeared. In the evening, after togomachy with the family, had a special talk with Dr & Mrs Davis, asking them to consider the subject of taking care of Mary, after I return to Africa;- (This was the 4th refusal I had been given;) but their state of health prevented them. JS

Friday April 8: Wrote in the study; made a draft of the "Story of Iga", wh. I promised to write for the Rev Mr Murphy. A lady sent in a turkey, for my dinner. In afternoon, a Mr. Patterson called, for a few minutes. Walked with Dr Davis to the Cemetery: a fine view of what, in autumn foliage, wd be beautiful. At night, played togomachy.

Saturday April 9 } Signs of rain in the morning; & Sabbath " 10th } Addie & Susie Davis did not go to Blomsburg shopping, as they had intended. In afternoon, with Dr Davis, visited Mrs Stewart & Mrs Patterson; & Mary with Addie & Susie called also at Mrs Stewart's while we were there. Felt my stiff-a stump early in the evening, my knee (where I had struck it, a month ago, at Lenan Lane, against the sewing machine) began to pain me. On Sabbath A. M., did not feel bright or vigorous, but preached at Dr. Davis. At, after he had gone, in the afternoon to his preaching in the country service, a carriage came for me, from Rev. D. J. Waller Jr. of Bloomsburg, & drove me to B., to Dr. W's home, where I took supper, & Mrs Rev. D. J. W., & their orphan granddaughter: & another grandson: & Prof. Waller & Mrs W. & their little boy. Preached, in evening for Rev. J. M. Patterson, stayed at Mr P.'s: Mrs P.: their children, Misses Eleanor & Lois Howard.

Monday April 4th } A warm day. Near noon, went with Mr.
Tuesday " 5th } Patterson & his son Howard, to meet Mary, & Addie & Susie Davis, at the R.R. station, from Orangeville. The 2 latter went shopping & Mary, with me, came to Mr. P's & began sewing with Howard. Mr Neal came & made arrangements about dinner with her for Wed'y. Addie & Susie took tea with us, & returned to Orangeville. Mr P. & I called at

Bloomsburg, Pa. (April 1872)

Mr. Neal's & thence went to Baptist-church, to welcome their new pastor, Rev. Weeks. On Sunday, rose with a sick headache; & so, for, the afternoon & rain, did not go to Normal School, to address the students. Was sick all day; & grew better toward evening.

Wed'y April 6th
Thursday " 7th

On Wed'y rose weak, but walked to the Normal School, &, at Prof Welsh's invitation, addressed the pupils for 25 minutes. Then walked home; & at noon went to dinner, to Mrs Neal's: thence, from 3. to 5. P.M., a talk with the W. F. M. S., at the church. Then, a short call at Rev. Dr Walter's: & supper at Mr. Neal's: and, on way home, bought Mary a jumping-rope. At the evening Prayer-Meeting, made remarks.

On Thursday, about 11. A.M., left Bloomsburg, & Pittston. There waited 2 hours, & took, to Scranton: at Torrance, waited 15 minutes, - Rev. Frank Todd met us; & we were comfortably at his home, with Mrs Todd & Miss Hattie; by the 5.30.

Friday April 8th. All morning, copied the draft I had written, a week ago, of the letter for Mrs. Murphy's Junior Y. P. S. C. E. In afternoon, Mrs. Todd took me a half-hour drive up the valley. The united W. H. M. S. & W. F. M. S. met at Mr Todd's; & at their close, I talked with them & showed my pictures. The President, Mrs Park: Mrs Wilcock, who knew Mary's mother: Mrs & Miss Rockwell: Mrs Delroe: Mrs Burke, near neighbor to Mrs Todd.

Saturday April 9th } In morning wrote a letter to Sabbath " 10th } Augentyne. A snowy cold day, with occasional [illegible]

Sabbath, weather very cold. Addressed the Monroeton congregation, in the morning, & had a good time. In the afternoon, Mrs Todd drove me 2 miles, to the Greenwood church, where I addressed a good congregation. The good little babe of [illegible] was baptized, and I united with [illegible] in the choir.

Monday April 11th. Wrote to Mrs McMillan, and to Rev. Gillespie. Had a headache all day. Day was cold and blustery & snowy. Mary spent most of the day out of doors, and visiting the ladies in the adjacent houses; In the evening, Mr. & Mrs Lyons & their 10 year old daughter, Edith; came in a call.

Tuesday April 12th
Wed'y " 13th
Thursday " 14th

The 12th was chill, & we kept in doors. At 4. P.M., the house was closed, and we all 5 went to Towanda.; were met, at the depot, by Mrs Baldwin, Mrs Newton, and Mrs Overton. Mrs Todd, Hattie & Mary went with Mrs Newton; Mrs Todd & I to Mrs. McStewart's, stopped the carriage, on the way, to leave (Mary's) shoes for repair; Mrs & Mrs Stewart, & son & daughter Emma. Mrs Oswald(?) also, the wife of Mr. Oswald(?) of Troy, 20 miles distant. Evening Reception, at the church. Met Mrs. Robb Betts, Mrs Payne, Mrs. Blight & Mrs B. Mrs Pomeroy of Troy: Mrs Wells of Wilkesbarre: Mrs Humphrey: Mrs Griffith & her 2 daughters: Mrs Kirby & her young daughter: Miss Minnie Davies:

Quinlan.
Prof & Mrs Hunter, Miss Becky Armstrong: old Mrs
Scott: Mrs Blackman. On Wednesday A.M. went to the ticket-office, to enquire about trains & route to Warren: and walked past the site of the former Fowlers residence, as Pastor in Towanda: and near the Institute, where Nina's mother, long ago, had gone to school. In afternoon, sat in our Called for Mrs Stiles: & took tea at Mrs Betts. Mrs Hunter, room & prepared for evening address. At 7½ P.M. in the church, addressed a large audience. After the services, met Mrs Decker, a former school-mate of Nina's mother.
On Thursday
A.M. we packed, & Mrs Powell returned, on her cold ride, to Troy. I went to Mrs Betts, where Hattie & Nina were staying; & left at 11 A.M. for Monroeton; but forgot my satchel & had to let the others go on & I went back to Mrs Betts for the satchel & sat with aged Mrs B, till the 5 P.M. train. Miss Rockwell on the train: at Monroeton, Mrs R. & Mrs K. called, in the evening.
Shewed them a letter just rec'd from Mrs Capron.

Shoonaeton, Pa. (April 1892)

Friday, April 15. Wrote letters all morning. After dinner, took Mamie to see the mill sawing logs, at the adjacent hill-side; but, it was not just at that hour, in operation. (Had written to Mrs Patton of Africa a letter Madame Bizet). At 3. P. M., returned, and Mary rode with me Todd to Mamie's Corner. The Young Ladies' F. F. M. S. came to Mrs Todd's, and I talked Africa with them, for an hour. In the evening Prayer-meeting, & spoke again on Africa. At night, had a long talk with Mr & Mrs Todd about their taking care of Mamie, when I return to Africa.

Saturday April 16th
Sabbath " 17th
Monday " 18th

Wrote letter Sat. P. M. and, at 11. A. M. we all went to Dr Rockwell's to dinner, leaving Mary and spent the afternoon; and at 4. P. M. I left for Miranda. Met at the Washington St depot, walked across the bridge to East Miranda, and waited there about 1½ hours, joined the train to Tipatuse. Was met there by Elder Stovell, who drove me, in his sulky, to old Mr Lewis House; his son, young Mr Lewis, met me at the door, & Mrs Lewis took me in, to a cold supper, feared I would have a headache. Rev. Colt, M.D., an old gentleman, came soon afterward, & felt tried. Young Rev. Mr Lewis (who had met her at Pleasant Hill M. E. meeting) called on me, in the evening. Retired, with thanks, at 10 P.M.

Sabbath; rose late, made a hurried breakfast of all kinds of viands; I ate but little, heard with Rev. Colt, to-day, in the crowded lecture-room of the unfinished church-building. Conducted the services; quite a full and attentive audience. After meeting, Rev. Mr Kennedy; he had known me as a child, at Lafayette college, & in poor health, was young. He took me to his home, in the country, for dinner. His son & his young wife & child: Mrs Kennedy. After dinner, Rev. Mr. E. Cook called & engaged to come for me, after supper. He came, in his new buggy, stopped and took his 3 elder children, Maidie & 2 boys, & us rode to meeting, at Methodist church, at Campstown. After meeting, old Elder Mr. Foster, and old Mrs Fuller, the richest & finest [illegible]

(Mary. On this day, at 6.30 a.m., rose: took breakfast at 7 a.m., left Mrs Kennedy's at 8 a.m., in a small carriage, with Mrs Brown, which B. alighted at her little district school-house. At 9 a.m., train from Wyalusing to Towanda. Had, at 10 a.m., (was) Mass: Had, at 11 a.m., train to Ironwood. Letter from Dix P., in envelope; & from Dr Thiers, about R.R. train to Portland, Oregon. Mrs Judd left for Phy. Took Mary to a steam saw-mill, to see the circular saw work.

Tuesday, April 19th. Wrote letter to our V.P. Fossum, Mrs Ogden: but, did not feel well all day, with headache. Mary came late: A man, with large dancing bear, went through the village. Got one copy of the village paper "Enterprise", & sent them to Africa. Had my hair cut. Had taken Mary to see logs cut at the mill at the hill-side. Mrs Lewis has been called, in the evening, to see, placed with the Africa pictures & curiosities.

Wed: April 20th 70°
Thursday " 21st } Remained in the house, most of the day. A Mrs Rose a her daughter, Mrs Cummings, called to see us & [illegible] called, with Mrs Todd, on the next neighbor, Mrs Mrs & Miss Griggs. In the evening, addressed the Prayer-Meeting, on Syrian Mission.

On Thursday, at 9. A. M., went, in rain, to Townsends, with Mrs & Mrs Todd & Hattie, while Hattie & Mrs T. shopped, Mrs & I called on Mrs Metts. Then, when they came later, we all went to Mrs Stewarts (except Mrs Todd, who went to Mrs Hawkins) & stayed to dinner; And then we all met at Mrs Shaw's Building, and went to hear Gilmore's Band. And returned, in a crowded car, at 4. P. M. My knee hurt me a good deal.

Friday April 26. Summoned an expressman, for
1. P. M., to take my baggage to the depot: Went with Mrs Todd, Hattie, Mary, & Bertie Fowler, & Inez Rockwell, to the Toy Factory; & Mr Mullen gave Mary for herself & Iza, a large quantity of toys. Took, to the Printing Office, a short article urging Worcester people to interest themselves in the Factory. Went to Dr Rockwells, to say good-bye. Packed up. At 3.45 P.M., Hattie accompanied Mary & Ely to the depot. To Savanda, there ticket to Warsaw & re-check baggage. No change of cars, viâ Elmira & Hornellsville N.Y. Many romping in the car-aisles. Supper at Hornellsville. No carriage awaiting us at Warsaw; the ~~telephone~~ telegraph man & baggage-master my attention: got a buggy at a hotel near & rode, by 10. P.M., to Sister Joseph's. Sister Bella was there. Many sleepy, went at once to bed.

Saturday April 23d } Remained, all morning, in the Sabbath " 24th } house & waited for the trunks to come from the depot, - they arrived late. In the afternoon, at 3. P.M., was a Reception of Warsaw friends, for Sister Bella & myself. On Sabbath A.M., I preached on Missions. And, in the afternoon, Mother Joseph, who was not well, had a kind of farewell service, feeling that we three (Mary, Bella & I) wd. never be together again. I preached, in the evening, to the congregations of Baptist, Methodist, and Congregational, who united with the Presbyterian. The Methodist Pastor, Rev Brownlee, & Presb. Rev. J. Reid Pender, & Cong. Pastor Hobbs assisted. A very large and fine congregation.

Monday April 25th. Dr Lusk sent his carriage; & May, little Eleanor Miller, & I went riding down the valley, as far as the Salt Works, & up back, as far as the Cemetery. In afternoon, walked, with Mrs Nassau & May, to Mrs Bartlett's school, to see about May going to Kindergarten. And, on returning, rode with Father, & Mrs Miller & Eleanor, in Mrs Frank's carriage. May had gone to Dr Lusk's, to play with Minnie Lusk. Mrs Ruth Cleveland called. Also Mrs Dean & her son. Also Mrs Fowler.

Tuesday April 26th. May was sick, in bed, all morning, from eating lobster-salad last night at Mrs Lusk's. I had to sit with or near her, till 2. P.M., when the medicine Dr has given her operated, and she got up & dressed. I stayed in all day. Rev. Mr Fisher called. Also, Mrs Mary Fitzsimons, & other ladies. In evening, went, with Mrs Mather, to the Sanctuary, to hear a Prof Biggs, of Buffalo, address on Japan. At returning, with Mr & Mrs Miller, saw a fine exhibition of an Aurora borealis.

(Rochester N.Y. (April 1892)

Wed'y April 27th } Took Mary to school, at 9. A.M.
Thursday " 28th } to Miss Bartlett; and, at 11.30. A.M. went, by R.R., to Rochester. No one at the depot could tell me where was Oxford st, in wh. Mrs Alling lived. But, at a fruit store, I was directed to take certain car, & change at Powers Building. There, the car-conductor forgot to let me off at Hamilton st (wh is the extension of Oxford.) And, he had to return me there on the way back. Finally, I found 70 Oxford st., And, Mrs Alling got me a good dinner. While it was being prepared, a Mrs Perkins (?) came in, to see Mrs A. Just after the lunch, a reporter was introduced, to get notes for the evening paper. Rev. Dr & Mrs Riggs called to see me. Mrs Vick called. Mr Joseph Alling called.
After tea, rode, with Mrs Alling, to the Central church, & addressed them. A fire near was discovered, just as I closed. Rev. & Mrs Hamilton: Miss Semple: Mrs Vick & her mother-in-law. Mrs Noyes. Dr. & Mrs Wilson, formerly of Palmyra (?) Out of the church, I asked Mrs Alling to return home by herself, & leave me to see the girls near by, in the Masonic Building. The strange minister, Rev. Gaylord, accompanied me, & showed me the route by the st cars, & introduced me, on the cars, to Rev. Adams, Pastor of the St Johnsville Cong. ch.; Gaylord's erratic discourse.

Thursday 28th. Chatted with Mrs Alling, during the morning. & Mr Joseph Alling called in a few minutes. Mrs Vick called, at 11 A.M., and drove me in her carriage over the city, & to the residence of Mr Frazier. And I took dinner at Mrs Vicks home, after dinner, Mr. V. took me to his seed store-house & office. Mrs V., at 3. P.M., drove me to the R.R. station, for 3.40 to Warsaw. Mr Washington Frank, & Mrs Rev. Dudley on the cars, but I did not see them, till we reached Warsaw, where Mrs Nason & many met me. At night, Mrs Nason and I went to a Reception, at Mrs Judge Hakes, for Mr & Mrs Edward Burston.

Friday April 29th. Many did not rise till 9.30, too late for breakfast. Spent the morning in studying school.

a text, for sermon, on Sabbath morning. In afternoon, a Mrs. Foster (Herbert?) called to see at what hour we would be ready to visit him tomorrow. Mrs Nassau had gone to Rochester, in the morning, & returned about 5.30 P.M. I went to tea, to Dr Lusk's, Mother Mary had gone early in the afternoon. And, in the evening, we went to a Y. M. C. A. musical & gymnastic Exhibition; Mary was pleased, though she began to be sleepy, as the exercises were not over till after 10. P.M. Her Aunt, Mrs Nassau had bought her a summer hat, for daily wear at Rochester.

Saturday April 30th } Was busy all morning, preparing my Sabbath May 1st } sermon for Sabbath. Mary had risen very late, & was not very active, & was somewhat stupid & neglectful, for us. I had to rebuke her at noon. Shortly after dinner, Mr Herbert Foster came with a covered open wagon, & took Mrs Nassau, Mary, & self, to their home, more than 3 miles out in the country. Mary enjoyed the lambs & calves & horses in the stable.

There were Mr & Mrs Herbert Foster, — Mr Hedges Foster,

the three unmarried daughters, Eliza, Mary, & Hetty. Mary enjoyed herself pestering cats. The aged inform mother Foster. A cool pleasant ride back, early in the evening. On Sabbath, I arose with a headache, wh. continued all day. Dreaded much the preaching, with only a few notes, on text "Think on these things." A showery day. In evening, went to a union service of the Y. M. C. A.; was not pleased with the address of Mr. J. W. Allen, the Y. M. C. A. athlete. Mary had risen very late in the morning, & was sick, vomiting, in the afternoon.

Monday May 2. Rainy day, all day. Took my old watch to be repaired: & my watch-guard. Wrote letter to Rev Mr. Merrill, & Mrs Robinson (with photos of Lya & Argentyani) & to Dr Gaisman. A ticket agent called in afternoon, to enquire about the way I was going to Assembly. Played Logomachy, in the evening. Was distressed about the friction there is between Mary & her little cousin Eleanor Miller.

Tuesday May 3. Wrote letter to Mrs Allen, & Rev Mr Allen.

and Rev. E. C. Campbell. Went with May, on her way to school, & got for myself a pair of shoes, a gift from Brother Joseph; & a large rubber, a gift from Mr Wilbur. Priced a tricycle for May. In afternoon, with May, visited the Dudleys, & Mrs Cleveland. A heavy rain-storm came up, and stayed us awhile. Mrs Franks carriage came for us. Played logomachy, in the evening.

Wednesday May 4th. Wrote some letters. Read "Faith Doctor" by Dr. In afternoon, was to take May to the flour-mills, to see the process; but, she had wandered away from the yard;— so, I went without her. On returning, she joined me, & we went to Mr. Eveningham's Foundry & saw the casting of the melted iron,— quite a new sight to May. At the evening Monthly Concert, made some remarks on Missions.

Thursday May 5th
Friday " 6th } Thursday was a cold rainy day, & I had a bad headache. Went, in the morning, to Dr Lusk's, to get medicine for my headache, & obtained it, just as he was going away to Buffalo with Mrs Lusk. In the afternoon, about 4 P.M. Mrs Nassau called a carriage, to take May and (myself to the Salt Baths, where I had expected to make an evening address. But, my headache continued, & I contented myself with connection with Mrs Fisher, & Mr & Mrs Vick, & Dr & Mrs Fisher: & Mary employed herself very much with the 2 Fisher children, & the 2 Vick children, especially with Ethel. Returned, a cold dark walk, to Father Joseph's, leaving Mary with Ethel Vick, at Mrs Vic's urgent request. On Friday. went, on morning train, to Rochester, with Mrs Miller, and bought a jacket for Mary; shopped with Mrs Miller; went to Whitcomb House, for dinner; went to Mr. Frame's, to look at the African skins he had cleaned; and back to the depot. On the cars were Dr Fisher, & Rev. Mr Congdon, of Wyoming, & I quite a talk with him, about Auburn Seminary, & some doubt of its orthodoxy. At Warsaw, in evening, was invited to tea, with Mary & Mrs Nassau, at Mr Augustus Frank's. A cold night.

Sat'y May 7th } A chilly day. In afternoon, let Mary Sabbath " 8th } go to call at Minnie Lusk's.

On Sabbath morning, Rev. Mr Reid preached. I went.

after church, to dinner at Dr Lusk's. And, from there, at 4.P.M., to Y.M.C.A., to address them. Back to Mr Mix's house x, in the evening, an hour's address to the church, many a good girl to-day; and a pleasant day.

Monday May 9th } At 12. noon, went to the court house, Tuesday " 10th } to witness the Varley manslaughter trial: the court, after some preliminary business, took a recess till 2. P. M. At 1.45., the deputies at the door refused me entrance, was disappointed as I had never seen a trial, & wanted to hear the counsel for the defendant, who had a great reputation as an orator. Spent the afternoon in making drafts of articles for June Inter-Missionary Union, at Clifton Springs, on "Romanism in Foreign Mission" & "Marriage Relations of White Foreign Traders with native Ch-members." In the evening, Mrs Nasaw, at Mrs Miller's suggestion, ran over at supper time, & asked Mr Bartlett, of the counsel for the prosecution, to give me entrance. Went with Mr Eugene Bartlett, Miss B., & Miss Otis. Heard Mr B. (senior) open the prosecution for 1½ hours.

On Tuesday, in the ~~Tuesday~~ morning went again, with Mr B. (Senior) & Mr. Johnson; Mr B. completed his address; the Judge charged; & at 12. noon, I came home. (Had taken some clothing to the Laundry in the morning). & In afternoon, Mr McConnell called, to ask me to be escort for a Mrs Cameron, on the train to Portland. Mr. Miller came on bicycle, & his father with carriage - 2 gentlemen, to ride to Salt Works. Stopped on the way, to be introduced to Mrs Cameron. Mary enjoyed the visit to the Miller Salt Works. On returning, bought Mary a rubber-ball; got my repaired trousers from Mr Holmes; my lettered valise from the painter: let Mary go to visit Minnie Lusk; I made a short call on Mrs Harrington. Played lugenacky with Mrs Nassau in evening; Mary is becoming more demonstrative in her affection; and she is very sensitive about truth & obedience. Am very still to see how her little cousin Eleanor annoys her, - they do not get on well together.

Had been announced, one of the speakers, at the Popular Meeting for Temperance, for Friday evening. But, the evening was taken up with business session. And, on Saty, I went to the Tabernacle, for an announced Mass Meeting for, Prohibition, at which "members of the Genl. Assembly" were announced to speak. But I found only a few there, presided over by the Christian minister, and with only the colored members of the General Assembly.

On Sabbath 29th, went, at 9.30 A.M., to Missy Prayer Meeting, at 1st Presb. Ch. Dr Gillespie opened the meeting, Forman of India presided; Prayer by myself, & Tedford of India & remarks by Tedford, Underwood Lennie of China, & Underwood of Korea. Mrs Williams of Detroit, met me there, & I walked with her part of her way home. An invitation, through Mrs P. D. Browne, to dine at 4 P.M., with the family of Mr. A. S. Frank. In the evening, a carriage came for me, to the 1st Presb. Ch. of East Portland, Rev. D. O. Shumler. D.D. The audience was diminished, by the

E. N. R. meeting, in an adjoining room met a Rev. & Mrs Butt, of Dacotah?, the son of Princeton N. J., & knew our former colored servant Catherine, & her daughter Annas. On Sunday 30th at Assembly. On Tuesday 31st, Memorial Parade. And, at Mrs Browne's request, went to the W. F. M. S. Meeting, in Mrs Ladd's parlors. Was the only man there; opened the meeting with prayer. (Mrs Holcombe of India objected to my presence in the same room, & I went into a side room, & heard her, & Mrs Bartlett of Reed, & a lady from China. Had to stand for an hour; got wearied, & began (though, I understood, afterward, Mrs Browne had expected me to speak also.).

Wed: June 1st. Drew my check for mileage, at Ladd & Tilton's Banking House: ordered 1 doz of my Portland photos, - arranged for my return journey via Helena & Yellowstone Park. Wrote letter to Rev. Mr Stone of Helena, - to Charley Goodman at Butte, & to Miss (Mr) Story, at Salem, Oregon. - Mr Gray, with Lord,

Y., & had heard me speak on Africa, in 1873, when I visited Rev. Mr Moore, at Wyoming. Also, Mrs Matthews was from Western N. Y. Went with Mr Martin, to the City Water-Works. Returned with Mr Martin to the Matthews's office, & he took me to the Bank, & introduced me to a Mr Abbott, & thence to Mr Martin's, where I got my valise, & went to Mr Matthews's. At Mrs Mr's: Miss Lydia McNary. At Mr. Matthews's, Mrs M.: Miss Helen M. young Mr. Frank M., Mrs Cameron. Talking Africa, & showing my African pictures. On Saty, rose late, & stayed in doors all morning, talking Africa. Helen Matthews my earnest to learn of African ruins. Rev Mr Gwynne had called, on Friday evening, and arranged for my speaking twice on Sabbath. Saty A. M. was chilly & cloudy. About 3. P. M., Mr Matthews came with a carriage, and drove me past the Fair Grounds & Race Course, & some splendid strawberry, and other fruit farms. The Mr. invited in some of the neighbors for the evening, for me to show my African pictures, they came late: & I had to leave them suddenly, at 9 P.M., to go back to the Martins. Miss McNary's carriage was with me, on the st cars. At the Martins, sat up late, with Mrs M., Miss M., & Miss McNary & a gentleman visitor, till the Mr. returned late. On Sabbath, walked with the Mr. to ch. Was introduced to several of the congregation [On Friday afternoon, the Brethren had taken me to the ch., & I there met a Mrs Black, - a Mrs Rockwell, - & a Mrs Miller, who formerly had been at Wyoming N.Y. 20 years ago], & preached. Talked again at the Martin's, in the afternoon: & in the evening, spoke for an hour, to the Y. P. S. C. E. in the church. They gave me great attention. A young Mr Peck spoke to me about his desire to be a medical missionary. Returned to the Martin's. On Monday, waited for the reply from Albany, Oregon, whether I should go there to address the Ch. at night. About 9. A. M., Mrs. Matthews came with a letter, from Albany, regretting the Monday night was occupied, & wishing me for next Sabbath: But, I cd not wait. At dinner, Mr Martin paid me $5., from the Y. P. S. C. E., & $5. from the church, for each sermon, & $1., from some one, who had specially enjoyed the evening service. He said many had spoken very complimentarily of the addresses. I promised to write to Miss Dr Gray, from Africa, & told them I wd have letter to Daughter Gray published in Some religious newspaper. Left, at 1.40. P. M. stops at each stopping place, groups of men voting, for in Portland. It was Election day, At the Postoffice, by 5. P. M. We tried & sleepy at the evening, and retired early.

Tuesday June 7. Rose with a headache, Went to Laundry, to have clothing, to Portsmouth House, to see Rev. Mr Morse, of Helena, he was gone to Astoria, to Miss May Cooper's, to see a Rev (Rev 2) Campbell, of Chicago, a Communion to } Headache, in morning. Stayed in the house, & did not take the Cox excitation to Brod-water Natatorium, [Had met at church, yesterday, a lady, who had formerly been a miss Evans, of Newark, Del.] Gave Mrs Cox the "African string of initials", Mr C. drove me to the N. P. R.R. at 1. P.M., & introduced me to a Rev. Mr Tower, a Methodist clergyman: also, to a Mr Huntley, proprietor of the Yellowstone Park Association. My headache increased. Met, on the cars, a Mr Sheldon, Presb. Elder from Ishpeming, Mich. & Livingston, went to 4 restaurants, before I could find oatmeal porridge. Went to bed early at the "Albemarle" [had changed cars at Bozeman]. Abundance of curiosities at Livingston: early mountain-sheep heads, - $25. to $100.

On Tuesday, headache was not gone yet. Had to wait 2 hours, for a ~~xx~~ train from Cinnabar delayed by a wreck; saw the wreck, in the canyon, on our way to Cinnabar. In entering the cars, met Rev Wm Fisher, of Teaneck, N.J. was delighted to have his company. Introduced him to Mr. Huntley, & we calculated plans of the journey. The "Devil's Slide", in the ride to Cinnabar. The stage at Cinnabar, with 6 horses. The drive up the gorge of the Gardiner River, - a constant succession of cascades. Absent P. O., at the Mammoth Springs Hotel, Registered, - hundred; rested in my room for 2 hours; wrote letter, for 2 hours, to Mary & Charley Eaman; (daughter) & Poppleton, Arrangements & topics. Witnessed the parade of the cavalry troop, Walked, by myself, for 1½ hours, over the region of the hot springs. Chatted with Mr Huntley, at supper, about Africa. In the evening, arranged with Mr. Fisher, about xxx miles and number of days.

On Wed^y. At 8. A. M., started, in a buggy, with Mr. Fisher, & a German Rosspfle[illegible], a specially good driver & 2 fine young horses. Cool morning; a rock-mink on the road, the only animal we saw: the Golden-Gate gorge; Norris Basin, at about 1. P. M., just before a cold rain, Lunch in the tent.
The guide "Jim" expatiating on the boiling springs and small geysers, to wh. he led us, at about 2. P. M. The "Steamboat", "Growler", blowing out steam that deposited a beautiful white carbonate of lime, the "Hurricane", pouring a violent stream of hot water & steam horizontally from a hole in the rock:
the "Opal", blue Boiler: the "Emerald". Then, the carriages came for us, but Jim was anxious to show us more, though the signs of rain falling, Jim lost his way, & then made a false excuse (for taking us such a long route) that he had been a "beast", & had refrained from alarming the ladies. We laughed at his weak falsehood, & gave him no fee. Had to ruin the Gibbon river Canyon for, the bridges were broken, & took an old road. A breakdown of one of the 6 wagons, at a broken bridge. At the "Fountain", by 7. P. M. & after supper, went to "Fountain Geyser", & saw it in operation, from 8. P. M. to 8.30 P.M. The clouds of vapor: & the dark depths of the cleft in the rock, seen after the eruption was over.

Thursday June 16th. Off, at 8.30. A. M., for the Lower Basin & in 2 hours, was at "Old Faithful." We left the carriage at the "Castle" (what roaring like a locomotive letting off steam!) and, walked, for more than an hour, around & among the many geysers, & reached "Old Faithful", just in time. Then, to dinner: & just after dinner, "Old Faithful" again, from hotel steps. Was very close & cold. We left, & for the 3d time, in leaving, saw "Old Faithful". At "Fountain" Hotel, in 2 hours, & rested & dozed for 2 hours; & then went to see the "Fountain" just in time, & thence to the "Paint Pots". Pat Hunter arrived, with a company from the "Mammoth Hot". And, about 8. P. M. some 30 visitors went to see the wild bear that has become somewhat tame, & comes to eat the slops near the company of the hotel. It was a large cinnamon or brown bear.

Friday June 17th } On Friday A. M., we had hoped to Saty " 18th } have left at 7. A. M, so as to hasten through & get out of the Park on Saty afternoon, but we found that Mr. Hunter, as manager of the Association, would not allow the carriages to hasten; & we did not leave, till after 8. A. M. On the way, stopped at the "Punch Bowl" geyser, & "Black Sand" Pool. At Norris, for lunch, & then on, for the Yellowstone Canyon. A mile or more out, the springs of the carriage, which had cracked in crossing the Ford of the Gibbon river (along the new road which had been repaired, so that we were able to cone over it) snapped, & we got out & waited (Mr. Fisher walked on) while the driver went back for another carriage. He returned, in just 1 hour, & we started up Mr Fisher beyond the Virginia Creek Cascades, - a fine rushing milky fall. Large snow drifts & muddy roads. On nearing the Yellowstone Hotel, we left the carriage, & the German, Köpple, & I, walked to "Lookout Point", & viewed the Wonderful Falls & Canyon, & its colored rocks. I was satisfied with my view & my journey. At evening, walked to the Point with Mr Fisher, Met Mrs Cramer, Jr. f. Planning whether to stay over another day. Could not telegraph to Mr Huntley; for, telegraph wire was down. Had seen a dead drowned fawn.

On Sat'y. Mr Köpple stayed, & Mr F. & I left, at 7.30, to walk down to the top of the Lower & bottom of the Upper Falls, & to the Crystal Falls & waited till 9. A. M. for our drivers. The dead stained elks The road was improved from Friday. Rode over to Norris, the 12 miles, in 2½ hours. Lunched and walked to the Basin, to "Black Growler," & the "Hurricane". Started again, Overtaken by a storm of wind rain & hail, on the plain south of the Golden Gate Pass. Horses restive while I held reins, & Mr. F., & the driver put up the curtains, then, the horses raced for the protection of the Pass. I feared the wind wd blow the carriage over. Ran all the way through the Gate, & to the Mammoth Springs Hotel, just as the rain ceased. At supper, was introduced, by Mr Cramer, to his wife; & after supper, I shared her, & 2 other ladies, my African pictures.

Friday " 24th

Feared the day wd be unquiet at a hotel: but, it was quiet, after 2 companies of guests started at 8. A. M., on the routine trip through the Park, I read: and copied a draft I had made, some 2 weeks ago, of a letter for the Board, on my Mission work. In the afternoon, rested some, & walked with Mr Fisher around the Mineral Terrace, & the Hot Springs, & ran some journalists more beautiful than I had ever met before. At 4. P.M., came, in 11 coaches, 170 belated travelers, who had been detained by Dist. washouts. Among the rest, I met Rev. J. G. Bolton, of Phila, & Rev Phelps of New York, & a Miss Merrick. In the evening, a Christian Prayer Meeting in the corridor, led by Rev Mr. Elder, of Clarion, Pa. & Rev. E. discussed conversion & refreshing from, with Dr Bolton of Phila & Rev. D. H. Piper, & Elder Miller (?) of Philada. After meeting, shook my pictures to Miss Piper (formerly a teacher in Burlington, Vt.), & to Rev Phelps, & a Miss Young, from Western New York.

On Monday, had a bad headache all day, kept the hotel, on the stage for Chinatown, with Rev Peebles & 4. P.M., By rail, to Livingston, & thence to Butte, Mon.

Tuesday, Reached Butte at 8. A.M., Rode in cable to the Windsor Hotel, went to bed; and slept, with only my outer clothing off, till 8. P.M., Was suspicious of Butte, for I had heard of it as a bad mining-town, & I hid the $100. I had with me. Ate breakfast, & went out to arrange my ticket a Steiman, at the U.P. General Ticket Office, Wood, to the Northern Pacific, to recheck my baggage, for the U.P. Returned, & the landlord of the "Union" took me to Chas. Seaman's office. He walked with me & met on the street, Gen. McDowell; went to one of the wealthiest miners & talked part the time, & lunched at a restaurant with Chas. S., went to an iron mine, Mont. & U.P. depot, for 3.30 P.M. Thence, all night to Ogden.

Butte, Mont.a (June 1892) Greeley

Friday early morning at Ogden, Utah, & changed cars for Cheyenne. Rode all day & night. Made acquaintance of 2 young ladies, who had spent the winter in Butte, did not learn their names. The brother of the little Utah boy, who was going alone to Green River, Wyoming.

Thursday. By 5. A.M., was at Colorado, waited at the depot till 7. A.M., & then went to Rev. J. Q. Reed's who had, at Portland, asked me to come & address his people. He was not at home & his wife did not ask me to offer me any hospitality, & felt it much. Walked to a small hotel, near the depot, the "Union", & got breakfast, said a short, [illegible] & right a way again to read. The numbers & noise of the trades on the street. The travelling opera women at the hotel. Sept Tuesday, at 6. P. M., train for Salt on way to Denver. Met engineer, & the reclaim-workmen-miners, & a kind family. Also genial & the young Latin-clerk. Read till 10. P. M., & took train for Salt Lake.

Friday, a cold
chill day (and even a cold rain sometime). Still riding, eastward, At 11.30. A. M., at Grand Island. Got tickets to North Park, & arranged times of train, [illegible] Left part the Library & Reading Room. Was to leave on train at 4.30 & delayed till 5.30, And disappointed to the J. S. W. Brown, North
Kansas. Reached home there, at 7.30 P. M., & took tea with Mother, (a Pepper), his wife & baby. After supper, the rode with his wife & me 7 miles to the W. M. Gray, then Grand Mother, out on the county, on Gray's, on Bill's ranch, the 6 children, Stella, Robert, Grand, Alice, William, & Helen.

In Salt, on Gray ranch, Grandmother, Gray, mind,

Monday July 1st. At 10. A.M., Mr & Mrs Gray & Mrs dance one back to their home, on the way stopping at the Pettijohn's. And from 2 to 3 a reception came for me, with Mrs. Slater & little Miss Grandstaff Gray, rode to 12th Romaine, for dinner, & heard my pastor's. And then heard a [illegible] Mrs Ray read some of [illegible] then [illegible] & others [illegible] after supper, we rode back to Mr Gray's, & a long [illegible] Mrs Lloyd Stowell was visiting the Dawson Gray.

Tuesday, June 28th. Had a slight headache, [illegible] after "Noah's Ark", Mrs Slater came, & the little Gray, the granddaughter, was down for dinner. [illegible] Parents, & heard [illegible] & then went to Grandpa's to show the pictures to [illegible] who came for Mrs Pettijohn & Mrs Gray's, She had come late, so I had not quite completed, when, at 6.0. P.M., I had to stop, to gather things together, for good-bye. Left, about 6.30. P.M., with Miss Stella Gray, & Mrs Maud Gray, to drive, & little Helen with us. At North Loup, went at once to Mrs Bonnie's, found Rev. & Mrs Ray, the Pastor, there. They soon left, and by, 8. P. M., I bade the young ladies good-bye, as they were to return to their home, & I went to the church, very few people came, for the village was at a G. A. R. Festival; I addressed the Prayer Meeting on Africa for 2d 1/2 hour. Mrs Ray's quotation about the salvation of the heathen. I was not pleased with it. Went home with Mr Brown, & young Mrs B. & her husband, and showed them my pictures.

Wed.y June 29th

Went with Mr Brown, & stopped at his hardware store, on the way to the R.R. station, Left, about 8.15. A. M., At Grand Island, about 10.15. A. M., Rechecked my baggage to Buffalo: had to pay 50 cts for the extra storage of 1 of my 3 valises. A very warm day across Nebraska, and into Iowa. Did not take a Pullman, used a chair-car at night. On Thursday very early morning crossed the Mississippi, and rode across Illinois, till after 8. A. M., in Chicago, & transferred, on the omnibus, from the Chicago & Northwestern R.R. Station, to the Michigan Central. The latter the same miserable tarred ruin that were there 11 years ago! the poorest large city R.R. Depot I have seen in America. Stayed about the Depot till 3.10 P. M.; and then left, for Detroit & Buffalo. At Detroit, about 11. P. M. Passed Niagara Falls, about 5. A.M. And was at Buffalo Friday July 1st, abt 7.30 A. M., at the Union Depot, Gave up my baggage check, on the train, to an express-man. Walked to the Erie R. R., where the ticket agent wd. not issue me the clerical ticket that Rev Dr Roberts, of the Assembly, had led me to expect I wd get. He sent me to their General Office. They refused, and sent me to the Reading R. R. Office. They refused, & referred me to go to Agent Hancock, in Phila, after I had paid the full fare. I went back to the Erie R. R., & bought a $8.10, ticket to Phila. Left Buffalo at 8.50 A. M., My 2 valies had not come from the Michigan Central depot; but, I left the 2 checks, & took other from the Erie, & left, having only my 1 valie. At Warsaw by 11. A. M. The gulf-road was washed out with a flood, & the cab, had to go down around by the Salt Bath. Saw Miss Nassau on the street, but she did not recognize me. At Brother Joseph's home, Mary was away at Dr Lusk's; &, after I had drank a cup of coffee, I went to Dr Lusk's, & came as a surprise on Mary playing there, She glad welcome!!

Returned to Mother's. Dinner. Read a score of letters, that had been awaiting me. One from Augustus of Chicago. Went out into the yard, and allowed Mary, in old clothes, to wade in the gully of water still flowing from the flood, down through Mother's garden. Went to Mr Holmes', with a bundle of rest of old clothes, to be repaired. At tea, there was company, Mr & Mrs Augustus Frank, & Mary Frank, & Mrs McNair of Minneapolis, & her young son, & Miss McNair a maiden Lady.

On Saturday, went with a bundle of soiled clothing, to the Laundry. Came back, & re-read my letters, & answered 8 of them. After dinner, posted them, and went with Mary, to buy her fire-works. Sat down, on returning, to prepare thoughts for tomorrow's sermon. And, wrote up these last days entry, in this diary. A chilly day. At night, heavy rain.

Sabbath July 3d } Rain all day Sabbath. I preached, in the Monday " 4th } morning, on the Assembly. A good lesson from Mary, in the afternoon. In the evening, preached again, about Missionary work. Many eagerly anticipating the promised celebration, for the 4th.

On Monday, day clear & bright. Mary was up at 5. A.M.

but, after a vigorous play, she gave up. At 9. A.M., sick. the fleet, at the lounge, while I put up 7 photos for Africa; she woke in time to see the grotesque procession, and lay down again, & ate no dinner. But, after dinner, went with me, to see the sports in the street, saw the sack-race, & climbing the greased pole. Came back, & Dr Lusk came at 3. P.M., with double-seated carriage, to take us all to the Fair-Grounds, to see the trials of speed. While waiting for the ladies to get ready, the horses ran away, & broke the carriage-tongue. He went down, and came back with single-seated carriage, & took Mary & me. Left us on the Grounds, & went for Mrs Lusk, & Eleanor Nassau. Saw bicycles, horses, &c., and at 7. P.M., a Marriage. On coming out of the Grounds, a horse kicked, & broke a spoke of his carriage wheel. After supper, at Bostain's, walked with Mary, & Minnie Lusk, and sat, from 8.30 to 10.30 P.M., at the splendid fireworks. Came home with Mary, who was very tired & sleepy.

Tuesday July 8. After breakfast, went with Mary, to Mr

Warsaw N.Y. (July 1892)

(Montgomery's), for shoes for myself & her: he gave her a pair. Then, to Mrs Ruth Cleveland's, to leave Mary with Miss Linnie Bartlett, for the day. After dinner, went for Mary, & took her to Mrs Vick's, to play with Ethel. And, at 6. P.M., Mrs V. sent her carriage, for Mother & her wife & myself, to tea.

On Wednesday morning 6th Mr. Hedges Foster came for Mary, to go out to their farm, for the day. In the afternoon, Mrs Frank, with her daughter Mary, Minnie Lick, Mrs McNair of Minneapolis, came for Mrs Hanson & myself, a ride to Wyoming, to call on the Avery family. Returned, in time for Prayer-Meeting.

On Thursday 7th took Mary, for the morning, to play with Ethel Vick. And, at 12.30, went to get her, & take her, to Linnie Bartlett's, to dinner at 1. P.M. & Present, Mr & Mrs Hayward, & their daughter Mrs Floyd Bartlett, & Mr B, & their 2 little children. Stayed there till 4. P.M., & Mary packing at hotel. At 6.30. P.M., good-by, & rode to the R.R. Station, for 7. P.M. train east, but had to wait there 1½ hours.
